OFF FOR CHINA.

Rev. O. C. Crawford And Wife Are Now in East Liverpool Among Friends.

This estimable couple are well and favorably known in East Liverpool. They will leave for China on the 20th of the present month. They came here this afternoon and will remain until tomorrow morning. They will be at the residence of the reverend gentleman's sister, Mrs. Minehart, 233 Franklin avenue, tonight. The personal friends are invited to call at Mrs. Minehart's this evening for greeting and for good-bye.

ELECTION BET.

Rose Had a Free Ride Through the City Streets Yesterday Afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon a pair of white horses, gallily decorated with red, white and blue ribbon attached to a laudau, were driven through the streets of the city. The people turned out en masse to see the procession.

Seated in the landau was J. J. Rose and he presented a beautiful sight as he smoked his fragrant Havana and occasionally blew a small tin horn to announce his appearance.

FRED MALCOLM

WOULDN'T GO TO SCHOOL AND COMPLAINT WAS MADE.

Constable Miller Arrested Him And He Had a Hearing Before Squire McLane.

Fred Malcolm was arrested this morning by Constable Miller at his home on Church alley and locked up in the city jail.

The boy is but 10 years of age and for the past two years his parents have been unable to do anything with him. He refuses to attend school, and at the beginning of the present term complaint was made against him by the truant officer, but he promised to do better and was not prosecuted, but it seems he paid no attention whatever to the promises, and the authorities have been after him for two weeks.

Now that he has been apprehended the authorities are at a loss to know just what disposition to make of the case, but it is probable he will be given another chance.

BENTLEYS STATEMENT

SAYS BAXTER MADE NO REPEATED EFFORT TO GET A BALANCE

On the Sewing Machine and Mrs. Bentley Told Him She Did Not Want the Machine.

I, the plaintiff in the case, tried in Squire McCarron's court on November 7, wish to contradict the statement made at the trial and published in last night's News Review.

Mr. Baxter made no repeated efforts to get the balance due on the machine, as my wife told him it was not worth 12 cents let alone $12, and told him we did not want it. He said he knew another person he could sell it to, and agreed to refund the money already paid on it, as he was anxious to dispose of the machine, as he (Mr. Baxter) was short of money; and had a payment to make on property on Pleasant Heights, and it has since been learned that he traded the sewing machine for a heifer's calf.

A. C. BENTLEY.

EASTERN STAR.

Held a Meeting Last Evening And Elected Officers for the Coming Year.

Mrs. Mary McClure, worthy matron; John Nice, worthy patron; Miss Kate Burton, associate matron; Miss Maude Croxall, secretary; Mrs. Nellie Rhodes, treasurer; Miss Etta Horwell, conductress; Mrs. Mary Nailer, associate conductress.

Cat Escaped.

Some excitement was caused at the passenger station this morning by a cat belonging to a member of the Vanity Fair company. The cat was in a basket and in some manner escaped. It was captured by a small boy and returned to its owner.

STREET CAR LINE TO BE OPENED

The First Car Will Be Run to Riverview Cemetery In the Morning.

ONLY ONE CAR TO BE USED

Will Leave the Diamond Every 30 Minutes For Points Along Calcutta Road.

THE RESIDENTS CAN RIDE NOW

The new street car line to Riverview cemetery and Grandview will be formally opened tomorrow.

There will be no display of trumpets or any kind of a celebration to mark the affair, but a car will be put on the line early in the morning and residents of that part of the city who want to ride home can do so.

A regular schedule has not yet been made out, but a car will leave the Diamond every half hour, as it is the intention at present to only put one car on the line.

The car to be used will be fitted with the latest improved safety devices, so that there will be no more danger in coming down the hill than there is when the car is on the level.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

A Number of Local Teachers Will Go to Fairview to Attend the Session.

On Saturday, November 10, 1900, there will be a teachers' institute in Fairview. The program is as follows: Invocation—Rev. J. S. Pomeroy.

"Better Pay for Better Teachers"—George A. Allison.

"The Ideal School Room"—T. M. Cochran.

"Co-operation"—Prof. Henderson.

"Encouraging the Teacher"—Geo. S. Fullerton.

"Moral Training"—Rev. G. E. Fisher.

Music—Miss Donehoo.

Institute will convene at 1:30 p. m.

COLONEL WINSHIP

Thanks the News Review and Makes a Correction in Regard to His Position as a Toiler and Worker.

Cleveland, Nov. 8, 1900.

Mr. Harry Palmer, East Liverpool, O.
My Dear Sir—I thank you very much for your flattering report of my speech on Monday evening. On the whole it is a fair statement of the positions taken by me; but there is one error, and that is in relation to my present position as a "toiler and worker." The 10 years referred to were 10 years from the time I was 13 years old. I began working in a country blacksmith shop when I was 8 years old. Since 1869 I have been an attorney-at-law.

Very truly yours,

JOHN O. WINSHIP.

MARRIED.

Squire McCarron United the Lives of a Young Couple This Morning.

George Ledbetter and Miss Annie

E. Proctor were last evening at 8 o'clock married by Squire McCarron at his office.

The squire telephoned to Lisbon for the license and 20 minutes from the time they entered the office they emerged man and wife.

The contracting parties hail from Arkansas, but have been residents of the city for some time.

POSTPONED

THERE WILL BE NO JOLLIFICATION THIS EVENING.

The Weather Interfered And the Demonstration Will Take Place Next Tuesday Evening.

The Republican jollification to have been held this evening has been postponed on account of the weather. The celebration will take place, however, on next Tuesday evening, when it is expected there will be an unusually large turnout.

AWARDED A CONTRACT.

William McLane, of West Point, Will Build the Stone Bridge at Dry Run.

The contract for building a stone bridge over Dry Run was let yesterday by the county commissioners, William McLane being the lowest bidder.

There were three bidders, John Schmelzenbach, Dolby & Mackall, the latter two contractors bidding together, their figure being 7.25 a perch. Schmelzenbach bid $6.75, while McLane offered to do the work for $6.45 a perch.

Messrs. French, George and Bowman, in company with Prosecutor Brookes, were present, and among other things specified that the contract could be completed by Dec. 8.

PERSONAL NEWS

Paragraphs About People Coming and Going and Those Who Are Sick.

—F. W. Poland was in Steubenville today on business.

—Miss Francis Webster left this morning for Beaver.

—Rev. W. H. Locke, of Mansfield, was in the city over night the guest of relatives.

—Sol Whit returned to the city yesterday afternoon after a short visit at Wheeling.

—Mrs. J. H. Brown returned home yesterday afternoon from Steubenville, where she attended the funeral of her brother.

—Mrs. Clark Crawford returned to her home in this city last night after a visit of two weeks with her sister at Detroit, Mich.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Horner, who has been visiting in this city, returned to her home in East Liverpool this morning.—Salem Herald.

—Miss Maggie O'Neal returned to her home in Canada yesterday afternoon after a visit of six weeks with her cousin, Miss Mary Anderson, Seventh street.

TWO COMMON JAGS WERE ARRESTED

$1 AND COSTS HIS ASSESSMENT

Andy Boyle, a Hobo From Pittsburgh Walked Into Town and Incidentally to Jail.

WILL HAVE TO WALK OUT AGAIN

The essence of corn juice maketh a man drunk and no person knows this better than two offenders who faced the mayor this morning.

Charles Shepherd has a splendid name, but he imbibeth at various times and when Charles taketh on a load of that which maketh a fool of a man he appeareth on the streets and annoyeth the populace. Yesterday afternoon he was filled to the brim and was totally unable to walk in the straight and narrow path, in fact it took the whole sidewalk for him.

The city of East Liverpool does not pay for sidewalks for the use of one man, so when Officers Davidson and Aufderheide spied Shepherd he was conveyed to the city jail and put to sleep on one of those nice iron beds that have been prepared for the wayward. It cost him just $1 and costs and he departed his way this morning a poorer but wiser man.

Andy Doyle is a traveler of no small importance. Andy don't ride in Pullman palace sleepers, but prefers to use his feet, so that he can more thoroughly enjoy the scenery of the country. He arrived in this city from Pittsburgh yesterday and filled up with East Liverpool booze. Wood and Bryan got him and he was taken to city hall and given a chance to make a thorough inspection of the city jail.

This morning Mayor Davidson told him it would cost him just $1 and costs. He didn't have the cash, and as there is no prospect of him getting it he will probably be told to leave the city as soon as possible.

The News of Sebring.

Sebring News.

Bert Thompson and wife, of Cincinnati, arrived in Sebring Monday. Mr. Thompson is a kiln man and is engaged at the Sebring Pottery company.

Jonathan Hughes, Sr., brother of our genial handler at the Oliver China company, has accepted a position at East Liverpool. Mr. Hughes is a turner of 60 years standing, and thoroughly understands this business.

For the year from the 6th of November, 1899, to the 6th of November, 1900, there were 258 bisque and glost kilns drawn at the pottery of the Oliver China company. This is considered good work.

Child's Glove Found.

A child's red glove was found this morning. Owner can have same by calling at this office.

There will be an association football game tomorrow when the Rovers will play a club from McKeesport.

Will Leave the Diamond Every 30 Minutes For Points Along Calcutta Road.

THE RESIDENTS CAN RIDE NOW

The new street car line to Riverview cemetery and Grandview will be formally opened tomorrow.

There will be no display of trumpets or any kind of a celebration to mark the affair, but a car will be put on the line early in the morning and residents of that part of the city who want to ride home can do so.

A regular schedule has not yet been made out, but a car will leave the Diamond every half hour, as it is the intention at present to only put one car on the line.

The car to be used will be fitted with the latest improved safety devices, so that there will be no more danger in coming down the hill than there is when the car is on the level.

COLONEL WINSHIP

Thanks the News Review and Makes a Correction in Regard to His Position as a Toller and Worker.

Cleveland, Nov. 8, 1900.

Mr. Harry Palmer, East Liverpool, O. My Dear Sir—I thank you very much for your flattering report of my speech on Monday evening. On the whole it is a fair statement of the positions taken by me; but there is one error, and that is in relation to my present position as a "toller and worker." The 10 years referred to were 10 years from the time I was 13 years old. I began working in a country blacksmith shop when I was 8 years old. Since 1869 I have been an attorney-at-law.

Very truly yours,
JOHN O. WINSHIP.

MARRIED.

Squire McCarron United the Lives of a Young Couple This Morning.

George Ledbetter and Miss Annie

E. Proctor were last evening at 8 o'clock married by Squire McCarron at his office.

The squire telephoned to Lisbon for the license and 20 minutes from the time they entered the office they emerged man and wife.

The contracting parties hail from Arkansas, but have been residents of the city for some time.

POSTPONED

THERE WILL BE NO JOLLIFICATION THIS EVENING.

The Weather Interfered And the Demonstration Will Take Place Next Tuesday Evening.

The Republican jollification to have been held this evening has been postponed on account of the weather. The celebration will take place, however, on next Tuesday evening, when it is expected there will be an unusually large turnout.

AWARDED A CONTRACT.

William McLane, of West Point, Will Build the Stone Bridge at Dry Run.

The contract for building a stone bridge over Dry Run was let yesterday by the county commissioners, William McLane being the lowest bidder.

There were three bidders, John Schmelzenbach, Dolby & Mackall, the latter two contractors bidding together, their figure being 7.25 a perch. Schmelzenbach bid $6.75, while McLane offered to do the work for $6.45 a perch.

Messrs. French, George and Bowman, in company with Prosecutor Brookes, were present, and among other things specified that the contract could be completed by Dec. 8.

TWO COMMON JAGS WERE ARRESTED

Andy Boyle, a Hobo From Pittsburgh Walked Into Town and Incidentally to Jail.

WILL HAVE TO WALK OUT AGAIN

The essence of corn juice maketh a man drunk and no person knows this better than two offenders who faced the mayor this morning.

Charles Shepherd has a splendid name, but he imbibeth at various times and when Charles taketh on a load of that which maketh a fool of a man he appeareth on the streets and annoyeth the populace. Yesterday afternoon he was filled to the brim and was totally unable to walk in the straight and narrow path, in fact it took the whole sidewalk for him.

The city of East Liverpool does not pay for sidewalks for the use of one man, so when Officers Davidson and Aufderheide spied Shepherd he was conveyed to the city jail and put to sleep on one of those nice iron beds that have been prepared for the wayward. It cost him just $1 and costs and he departed his way this morning a poorer but wiser man.

Andy Doyle is a traveler of no small importance. Andy don't ride in Pullman palace sleepers, but prefers to use his feet, so that he can more thoroughly enjoy the scenery of the country. He arrived in this city from Pittsburgh yesterday and filled up with East Liverpool booze. Wood and Bryan got him and he was taken to city hall and given a chance to make a thorough inspection of the city jail.

This morning Mayor Davidson told him it would cost him just $1 and costs. He didn't have the cash, and as there is no prospect of him getting it he will probably be told to leave the city as soon as possible.

REAVES BOUND OVER TO COURT

Will Answer to a Charge of Shooting Stewart With Intent to Kill.

TRIAL YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

A Number of Witnesses Were Examined and All Told the Same Story.

TWO PEOPLE HELD AS WITNESSES

Jack Reaves, alias Jack Lee, alias Jack Hubert, alias Jack the Ripper and a few others, was given a hearing yesterday afternoon before Mayor Davidson on a charge of shooting "Dunk" Stewart with intent to kill. The details of the affair were given yesterday.

About 25 colored people had congregated in the mayor's office by 1:30 o'clock, including several women, and considerable delay was occasioned in awaiting the arrival of Prosecutor Brookes.

Finally at about 2:30 the mayor concluded to go ahead with the case, and George Stewart, the victim, Beatrice Wells, Walter Brown, William Green, Jessie Alexander and John Booker were sworn for the state.

Walter Brown was the first witness called and he testified as follows:

"Was a resident of Liverpool; resided at 204 Fairview street; was a potter by trade and had met Reaves at Jack Robinson's place between 11 and 12 o'clock yesterday. Prisoner and him had gone out, but returned in about an hour, when Reaves had noticed Jessie Alexander and asked her for a cigarette. He called the girl, but she refused to go where he was. Booker and Stewart had something to say at this point, and Brown heard the shot fired, but did not see Reaves or any one else with a revolver. He heard the second attempt to shoot and heard the revolver snap. He had ran in where the noise came from and nearly ran into the gun in the hands of Reaves. Witness had heard Reaves say he would 'kill every one' in the place. Stewart and Reaves had no trouble previous to the shooting that he knew of.

George Stewart was next called and said he was from Chester, but hadn't been there long. He knew defendant in this case; had met him yesterday in Jack Robinson's place, at which time an argument was indulged in between him and Reaves, the latter claiming witness owed him a dollar. He finally admitted it was only 75 cents and later said he didn't know what it was. Witness insisted he owed him but 25 cents. John Booker spoke up and said he would pay the dollar if Stewart owed it to him rather than to have any trouble, but witness would not let him. Reaves then called to the Alexander woman to come over where he was, but she refused and Booker advised him to let her alone. At this Reaves had whipped out a revolver and fired directly at him, the ball taking effect in his right breast. Reaves then turned his attention to Booker and snapped the gun three times, but it failed to go off. Defendant had by this time gotten near the back door and made his escape up the alley.

Jessie Alexander was next examined and from her testimony she knew very little about the case. She had been behind the piano when the shooting occurred and did not know who had fired the shot. Prisoner asked witness at conclusion of her testimony if she had seen any one else.

Witness had seen a revolver in it, with which he blazed away at Stewart, then snapped it three times at Booker. He made his way back through the hall and into the alley. She saw "Hun" Brown go through the window, and then went with the bunch that took Stewart to the doctor.

John Booker--Trouble had started when he advised Reaves to let Jessie Alexander alone. He heard defendant make use of words accredited to him by Brown and others, and saw him shoot Stewart. He was within a few feet of the man when the shots were fired, and when he hit Stewart, Reaves had turned and snapped the revolver three times at him, but it didn't go off. Witness couldn't be mistaken in the man.

William Green was next called and told his story in a manner that would indicate he had learned it well. He had seen the whole thing "wid dese eyes I has in my head now." He told about the colored people enjoying themselves during the afternoon, how they had indulged in a little crap game, and all had been so peaceable until the shooting. He had no hesitancy in identifying the gun with which the shooting had been done. He described it as a 32-calibre Iver Johnson harmless gun. Either Green or the authorities are wrong about the gun that did the deed, as one revolver had been taken from Reaves earlier in the day and the one found in the back yard after the shooting was not the one identified by Green.

Mayor Davidson bound Reaves over to court in the sum of $500. John Booker and William Green were held for witnesses when the case comes up in court, and the former's release was secured by money in a local building and loan company, while Green will go to Lisbon, where he will be held until the case comes to trial. He will be sent to Lisbon today or Saturday.

QUAIL SEASON

Hunters Should Remember That They Must Have Written Permit of Land Owner.

The quail hunting season opens on Saturday. Hunters should not fail to remember that a written permit must be obtained from the owner or tenant of land before hunting can be done upon it.

They should also remember that it is not necessary for farmers to post notices to the effect that hunting is forbidden on their lands. Hunters must have a written permit, whether such notices be posted or not.

We have made a special effort this season to please the young men, and we have made up a special line of suits and overcoats, in blacks and gray oxfords. Goods that are equal, in style and finish, to any merchant tailor production.

SOUTHSIDE CAR STRUCK A WAGON

Disastrous Smashup at the Corner of Cook Street and Broadway Yesterday.

MOTORMAN COULD NOT STOP

Walters Was Unloading Potatoes
at the Store of Frank Oyster
When It Happened.

OYSTER'S WAGON ALSO DAMAGED

A mixup between street car No. 11
of the Southside line and a wagon
owned by James Walters occurred on
Cook street yesterday afternoon.

Walters was unloading potatoes at
Frank Oyster's and when Motorman
James McKinnon rang his gong at the crossing of Walnut street he started to the horses to get them out of the way, but the car was moving so fast he didn't hardly get the horses started when the car struck the wagon, knocked the horses down and threw it against a delivery wagon
of Oyster's, turning the Oyster wagon
over and badly damaging it, the side being torn out, the shafts broken and
the glass broken out of the front part of the wagon. Walters' team was dragged a short distance by the car
and badly bruised.

One of the wagons was thrown on the sidewalk and almost through one of the large plate glass windows in the store.

A NEW RECORD.

President McKinley Has Established
One by Receiving 292 Electoral Votes.

If, as it appears, McKinley has 292
electors, he will establish a new record, for the greatest number heretofore given any candidate was 286 in 1872, the year that Greeley made the hopeless fight.

McKinley did pretty well four years ago with 271 electors, but that was exceeded by Cleveland in 1892 with 277. The next best record was made in 1852, when Franklin Pierce had 254 electors, leaving but 42 to Winfield
Scott, who came within 215,000 of having as many votes as Pierce had.

But the greatest victory was 1820,
when Monroe, with 231 electors, was successful over John Quincy Adams,
who had but one elector. In the contest between Lincoln and McClellan,
Lincoln had 212 electors to 21 for Mc-Clellan, yet the popular vote was not so marked in its difference, for in a vote of 4,000,000 Lincoln was only a little more than 400,000 ahead.

Garfield's popular vote was only about 7,000 in excess of that cast for Hancock, yet Garfield had 214 electors
while Hancock had but 155.

When Harrison defeated Cleveland
in 1888, with 233 electors to 168 for Cleveland, Harrison lacked almost 100,000 of having as many votes as Cleveland.

The same peculiarity was noticed when Hayes defeated Tilden, the difference of the popular vote in Tilden's
favor being 250,000.

When Andrew Jackson defeated
Henry Clay in 1822, with 219 electors,
he had only 687,000 votes. When Cleveland defeated Blaine in 1884, with 219 electors, he had 4,911,000
votes.

Disastrous Smashup at the Corner

way Yesterday.

Walters Was Unloading Potatoes
at the Store of Frank Oyster
When It Happened.

OYSTER'S WAGON ALSO DAMAGED

A mixup between street car No. 11
of the Southside line and a wagon
owned by James Walters occurred on
Cook street yesterday afternoon.
Walters was unloading potatoes at
Frank Oyster's and when Motorman
James McKinnon rang his gong at the crossing of Walnut street he started
to the horses to get them out of
fast he didn't hardly get the horses
started when the car struck the wagon, knocked the horses down and
threw it against a delivery wagon
of Oyster's, turning the Oyster wagon
over and badly damaging it, the side
being torn out, the shafts broken and
the glass broken out of the front part
of the wagon. Walters' team was dragged a short distance by the car
and badly bruised.
One of the wagons was thrown on
the sidewalk and almost through one
store.

A NEW RECORD.

President McKinley Has Established
One by Receiving 292 Electoral Votes.

If, as it appears, McKinley has 292
electors, he will establish a new record, for the greatest number heretofore given any candidate was 286 in 1872, the year that Greeley made the hopeless fight.
McKinley did pretty well four years
ago with 271 electors, but that was exceeded by Cleveland in 1892 with 277. The next best record was made in 1852, when Franklin Pierce had 254 electors, leaving but 42 to Winfield
Scott, who came within 215,000 of having as many votes as Pierce had.
But the greatest victory was 1820,
when Monroe, with 231 electors, was
successful over John Quincy Adams,
who had but one elector. In the contest between Lincoln and McClellan,
Lincoln had 212 electors to 21 for Mc-Clellan, yet the popular vote was not so marked in its difference, for in a vote of 4,000,000 Lincoln was only a little more than 400,000 ahead.
Garfield's popular vote was only about 7,000 in excess of that cast for Hancock, yet Garfield had 214 electors
while Hancock had but 155.
When Harrison defeated Cleveland
in 1888, with 233 electors to 168 for Cleveland, Harrison lacked almost 100,000 of having as many votes as Cleveland.
The same peculiarity was noticed
when Hayes defeated Tilden, the difference of the popular vote in Tilden's
favor being 250,000.
When Andrew Jackson defeated
Henry Clay in 1822, with 219 electors,
he had only 687,000 votes. When Cleveland defeated Blaine in 1884,
with 219 electors, he had 4,911,000
votes.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1900.

BURY THE HATCHET.

It is the custom in some communities for all political parties to jubilate indiscriminately, irrespective of partisanship, after the presidential issue has been decided, making the jubilee an oh-to-be-joyful one, doing away with all bitterness, and thus more firmly uniting friends and neighbors in the bond of friendship. This is the spirit which should control and animate our citizens in Tuesday's jubilee. Bury the hatchet.

JUBILATE TUESDAY NIGHT.

And do it in a nice and agreeable manner. Sound money Democrats all over the land voted with the Republican party. This great victory of ours was won by the people; men gifted with good, common business sense, and the victory will prove a blessing even to those who voted for William Jennings Bryan. The rejoicing of Tuesday next is simply in the way of thanks that the nation escaped a great calamity.

BILL BRYAN.

He made the mistake of believing himself the whole thing—the whole Democratic party. He forced his obnoxious pet theory of 16 to 1 upon the Democratic party, at the command of his employers, the silver kings and trusts, and was repudiated by long-headed business Democrats all over the land. He was defeated in his own state, his own county, his own ward and his own precinct. Farewell, Mr. William Jennings Bryan. A final goodbye.

THE PROHIBS.

We rejoice in the fact that we have some good friends among the Prohibitionists in East Liverpool. There be some of them who are level-headed, fair and courteous gentlemen; and then there be some who are absolutely fanatical in their hatred of the Republican party; and the venting of the spleen of this class has driven voters away from the Prohibition ranks. We have a specimen of this latter class in mind this morning, as we read a letter written to us by him—a letter which he desires we shall publish in this paper; a letter full of hate and malice against Republicans. We respectfully decline to give it a place in these columns, largely for the reason that it would do harm and injury to the better and more sensible class of Prohibitionists, and injure their party, as has lately been the result of unwise platform speakers, men who imagine that abuse is argument and wisdom.

"Columbus" Butterine is better than butter. Try it; at A. E. McLean's, 243 Fifth street.

J. J. LENTZ DEFEATED.

Tompkins Won by a Margin of Eight Votes.

A CONTEST LIKELY TO OCCUR.

Before the Count Was Declared Lentz Announced, if It Was Against Him, He Would Take Such Action—McKinley's Plurality Over 71,000.

Columbus, O., Nov. 9.—The official count in the Twelfth Ohio congressional district completed gives Emmett Tompkins, Republican, a majority of eight votes over John J. Lentz, Democrat, the present representative. The district is nominally about 2,500 Democratic. During the late session of congress Mr. Lentz took a prominent part in the investigation of the Cour d'Alene mining troubles and was very severe in his criticism of the administration.

Colonel Nevins' plurality in the Dayton district has been officially declared to be 153, and Mr. Bickley, his Democratic opponent, says he will not contest. Lentz had already announced that if the count went against him he would contest, and have the President, Senator Hanna and Chairman Dick called as witnesses. Lentz asserts that a large number of the students at the State university and the medical colleges perjured themselves when they swore they were residents and entitled to vote. He is also incensed at the numerous prominent Democrats, including ex-Congressman Outhwaite, who worked against him. With Monroe county to hear from, Chairman Dick, of the Republican state committee, figures McKinley's plurality in Ohio of 71,017.

TWO MORE BODIES FOUND.

One That of Moorehouse, Missing Clerk, Whom Fire Authorities Thought Alive.

New York, Nov. 9.—Two bodies were taken from the ruins of the Tarrant building. The first was that of Hamilton Matthews, a driver for Tarrant & Co. The remains were shockingly mutilated.

Later the diggers in the ruins came across the body of Benjamin Moorehouse, the missing shipping and stock clerk of the company. Moorehouse was 51 years of age. With him in all probability died also all possibility of explaining the fire horror.

Moorehouse lived at Mont Clair, N. J. Fire department officials insisted all along that the clerk was purposely keeping out of the way.

CONGER REPORTS PROGRESS.

Sent Word as to Negotiations to Reach a Peace Agreement.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Additional reports from Mr. Conger record the progress of the efforts being made at Peking to bring the foreign ministers to an agreement as to the basis of negotiations with China. The department still declines to make public any of the details of the deliberations of the ministers, and it appears that this reticence is a matter of international agreement, the purpose being to avoid presenting any of the differences that may arise from time to time to the notice of the Chinese plenipotentiaries who might use them to serve their own ends. However, the statement is reiterated that progress is being made toward a satisfactory conclusion, and it is hoped that within a short time it will be possible to least initiate the formal negotiations with Chinese plenipotentiaries.

No advice has yet been received here confirming the report that Russia has annexed territory in Chih Li province, and the impression prevails that if the Russians have occupied any territory there it is simply a military movement in preparation for the maintenance of the Russian forces at a suitable base on the road to Peking for the approaching winter.

Yellow Fever at Natchez.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 9.—One case of yellow fever was reported to the state board of health from Natchez. Mrs. Butler, the first patient reported, died. She was a niece of former Governor Long, now of Ohio. A surgeon of the marine hospital service is now in Natchez endeavoring to trace the source of infection.

Bryan Congratulates the President.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 9.—William J. Bryan forwarded the following telegram to President McKinley:

"Hon. William McKinley, President of the United States—At the close of another presidential campaign it is my lot to congratulate you upon a second victory. W. J. Bryan."

HIT A WAGON.

STREET CAR BADLY DEMOLISHED A WHEEL.

It is Claimed the Accident Was Due to Carelessness on the Part of the Motorman.

At 9:30 this morning as William Allison, who drives for Lorenzo McMillan, was proceeding along the river road at a point just above the Thompson pottery with a wagon heavily laden with casks from one of the river potteries his wagon was struck by street car No. 12, Motorman J. A. Allison, and one of the rear wheels completely demolished. The driver had crossed the track and had not gotten clear of the car when struck. It was necessary to unload the wagon on the river bank before the wreck could be cleared away. Had the motorman been a little more careful he could easily have seen that the wagon was in the way.

Patrons of the line were compelled to transfer in several inches of mud for some time.

AN ACCIDENT.

R. H. Cox, a Tender at the Laughlin Pottery, Was Seriously Injured Yesterday.

R. H. Cox, a tender employed on the Laughlin No. 2 improvements being made, was seriously injured yesterday by being hit on the left side of his head with a brick.

He was tending bricklayers and was in the act of sending up some brick with a block and tackle and was stooping over when hit. Workmen were engaged on the top of the kiln under course of construction, and one of the bricklayers was dressing the brick in wedge shape when it slipped from his hand, striking Cox on the head.

The gentleman was compelled to lay off owing to the injury which is giving him considerable pain.

Will Play a Game.

A game has at last been arranged between the National Guards and the Royal Tigers of East End.

The game will be played on Monday afternoon, November 19, at Columbian park. Both teams are confident of winning, and as they have both been strengthened very much, a nervy, hot contest can be expected.

Met Last Night.

The missionary society of the Second Presbyterian church held their regular monthly meeting at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. N. M. Crowe yesterday afternoon.

Trusses at the E. E. Pharmacy.

He is Very Ill.

Jesse Smith, of Smith's Ferry, is very ill, and his death is thought to be the question of but a few days. The gentleman is very old, being over 80 years of age, and is one of the best known pioneer residents of the community.

Take prescriptions to the E. E. Pharmacy.

Waited in the Snow.

A number of East End women and children were compelled to stand around in the snow again this morning while they waited the arrival of the trains.

Will Play at Lisbon.

The Royal Tigers will play the Lisbon eleven next Saturday at Lisbon, and are confident of winning, as their team has been strengthened materially.

Entertained at Luncheon.

New Cumberland Independent. Mrs. W. C. Mahan, of Arroyo, Va., gave a pretty luncheon on Friday, November 2, in honor of her two sisters, Mrs. Grosshans, of East Liverpool, O., and Mrs. Chaney, of Wells-ville, brides of a recent date. The party numbered 12, the following ladies being present: Mrs. W. C. Aiken, Mrs. A. P. Howard, Mrs. John Porter, Mrs. C. E. Brenneman, Mrs. W. V. Powell, Mrs. Grosshans, Mrs. E. W. Hewitt, Mrs. Chaney, Mrs. Philip Smith, Mrs. H. C. Brenneman, Mrs. William Riley and Mrs. R. M. Cowl.

Limestone Received.

The limestone for the walks at Rock Springs has arrived at the freight station, and work will be started at once laying the same. The balance of the extensive improvements will be made some time before January 1 and when they are completed some $2,000 will have been expended.

Sprained His Knee.

Mike Kinney, foreman of the work gang on this section of the Panhandle road, while alighting from the train near Arroyo, slipped and fell, spraining his knee.

Kinney resides in Chester and was assisted aboard the noon train and brought to this place. He will not be able to resume work for some time.

Arguing Politics.

The individual known to the employees of the Rock Springs line as the "Southside Kid," was so jubilant over the result of the election that he had not recovered at an early hour this morning. When seen last night he was still arguing politics, at least his wife was so informed.

Raised the Track.

The Panhandle section crew have been working for several days in the lower end of town, and the track for a distance of 100 yards has been raised several inches.

Wiring.

THE DEMAND ON MORROCCO.

The Battleship Kentucky May Stimulate Action on U. S. Consul's Demand.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The instructions of the state department to United States Gunners at Tangier, under which he acted, were to collect an indemnity from the Moorish government for the murder of Marcus Essagin, a naturalized American citizen, who was killed about a year ago by a mob.

It so happens that the big battleship Kentucky is making her way through the Mediterranean to Manila, and if she touches at a Moorish port, as she would be very likely to do, her presence may have a beneficial effect in stimulating action upon the consul's demands.

SURPRISE TO BRYAN.

The Nebraskan Comments on the Election.

PROSPERITY ARGUMENT POTENT.

Also Said the Appeal "Stand by the President While the War Is On" Had Some Effect—Will Not Accept the United States Senatorship.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 9.—William J. Bryan gave out the following statement concerning the election:

"The result was a surprise to me and the magnitude of the Republican victory was a surprise to our opponents as well as to those who voted our ticket. It is impossible to analyze the returns until they are more complete, but, speaking generally, we seem to have gained in the large cities and to have lost in the smaller cities and in the country.

"The Republicans were able to secure tickets or passes for all their voters who were away from home, and this gave them considerable advantage. We have no way of knowing at this time how much money was spent in the purchase of votes and in colonization. While these would account for some of the Republican gains they could not account for widespread increase in the Republican vote. The prosperity argument was probably the most potent one used by the Republicans. They compared present conditions with the panic times of '93 to '96, and this argument and weighed what those who did not stop to consider the reasons for the change. The appeal 'stand by the President while the war is on' had a great deal of influence among those who did not realize that a war against a doctrine of self-government in the Philippines must react upon us in this country. We made an honest fight upon an honest platform, and having done our duty as we saw it we have nothing to regret.

Concerning himself, Mr. Bryan said: "I have come out of the campaign with perfect health and a clear conscience. I did my most to bring success to the principles for which I stood. Mr. Stevenson did all that he could; Senator Jones and the members of the Democratic, Populist, Silver Republican and anti-imperialist committees did all they could. Mr. Hearst and his associates in the club organization put forth their best efforts. Only newspapers, our campaign speeches and our local organizations all did their part. I have no fault to find and no reproaches. I shall continue to take an active interest in politics as long as I live. I believe it to be the duty of citizens to do so, and in addition to my interest as a citizen, I feel that it will require a lifetime of work to repay the political friends who have done so much for me. I shall not be a senatorial candidate before the legislature which has been elected. Senator Allen deserves the senatorship, which goes to the Populists. Mr. Hitchcock and Mr. W. H. Thompson are avowed candidates for the senatorship. They both deserve well of the party and I am too grateful to them for past support to stand in their way, even if I desired a seat in the senate."

Mr. Bryan said he had no other plans at present than to remain at home until he has recovered from the fatigue of campaigning. He denied the report that he would remove from Nebraska and make Texas his home.

TALK OF REORGANIZATION.

Gov. Stone Says Democratic Party Don't Need It—Views of Some Present and Past Leaders.

New Orleans, Nov. 9.—The New Orleans Picayune sent telegraphic requests to many leading Democrats in various sections of the country, asking expressions with reference to the future of the Democratic party. The following are extracts from some of the replies:

Hoke Smith, Atlanta, Ga.: "A party which can poll the enormous vote that the Democratic party has recently polled is far from being a dead party. More conservative councils will prevail in future Democratic conventions and with a pronounced sound money platform in 1904, with a man against whom no factional fight can be made, there is every reason to believe the party will triumph."

Horace Boies, of Iowa, says in part: "My belief is we should drop 16 to 1. Let the money question rest while conditions remain as at present; organize Democratic clubs in every voting precinct to send delegates to county, from county to state and from state to national convention, of delegates to meet periodically and formulate a platform for the party. This should be based on principles enunciated in our declaration of independence."

New York, Nov. 9.—Governor Stone, vice chairman of the national Democratic committee, said in part in regard to the proposed reorganization of the Democracy:

"This talk about a reorganization is absurd. The Democratic party is already organized. If by reorganization is meant a change in the national committee that will have to be done at the next national convention. If by reorganization is meant radical change of platform, with a candidate whose views will accord with it, that will also have to wait the next national convention.

"If the next national convention wants a new national committee I am willing to abide by the verdict of the convention. I have noted that those men who clamor for reorganization after defeat are the very ones who contributed to the defeat."

Don M. Dickinson said that previous to the election a meeting was held in New York to discuss the reorganization of the party, and it was decided to issue a call signed by Grover Cleveland, William C. Whitney, Abram S. Hewitt and other prominent Democrats as the first step to bring this about. Mr. Dickinson was here a few days before the election and had a conference with ex-President Cleveland. Mr. Dickinson says that a call will be issued in two weeks appealing to all Democrats to unite upon a declaration of principles on which the party can be assured of victory four years hence.

William C. Whitney says that free silver and imperialism were responsible for Bryan's defeat and adds that when the Democracy surrenders to a man who twice loses New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Indiana, "our old battle grounds," by majorities unprecedented in the history of our country, it is evident that rigorous measures in the way of repudiating false gods and false principles are required.

Abram S. Hewitt, "the father of the gold Democrats," said he had heard nothing of Mr. Dickinson's project, but thought it a sensible thing to do and that it ought to be done.

Nothing has been heard from ex-President Cleveland.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 9.—Former Senator David B. Hill has received several hundred telegrams from Democrats in this and other states asking that he suggest a plan whereby the Democratic party might be reorganized. Asked to make a statement, Mr. Hill said: "I have been flooded with telegrams asking me what should be done. I have as yet made no statement, but may do so later."

Washington, Nov. 9.—Ex-Senator Gorman, of Maryland, was asked his views on the reorganization of the Democratic party and replied in part: "It is too early to talk or even to think about reorganization. The defeat was so overwhelming, and the knockout so complete that we must have time to recover our breath before making any predictions or calculations as to the future policy of the Democratic party."

M'KINLEY HAS NEBRASKA.

But Poynter, the Fusion Candidate, Has Veay Likely Been Elected Governor.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 9.—Complete returns from two-thirds of the counties in Nebraska, and scattering returns from the balance, show McKinley has carried Nebraska by a plurality of at least 2,000. An equal number of returns on the state ticket indicate that fusionists have re-elected Governor Poynter and the entire state ticket by pluralities ranging from 500 to 1,800 over the Republicans, the governor being high man.

If the balance of the state shall show the same percentage of gain and loss, Poynter's election is certain and the counties to be heard from being mostly in the western part of the state, it is fair to presume that this is the case.

The legislature will likely be decided by Douglas county, in which it will take official count to determine the vote. The World-Herald, Democrat, claims the lieutenant governor will cast the deciding vote in the upper house and that the lower house is evenly divided with two places in doubt.

The state Republican committee, which previously gave out the claim that Edrich and the Republican state ticket had won from 5,000 to 7,000 majority, scaled down "close to the danger line," and claimed the election of the state ticket by from 1,000 to 2,000.

In Douglas county the count is close and charges of fraud are made by the Democrats. The Republicans claim to have elected one out of three senators and six out of nine representatives, while the Democrats claim two senators and all the representatives.

The Republican committee concedes one senator to the Democrats and one representative, stating also that the official count may be required regarding two representatives. This would give the Republicans a safe majority on joint ballot.

The congressmen in this state are: Two Republican, Burkett and Mercer, three Fusion, Stark, Shallenberger and Robinson, with the Sixth district, represented by Neville, who is a candidate for re-election, still in doubt.

The Sixth district, so far as heard from, gives Neville 100 lead, but the counties of this district which have not been heard from are likely to defeat him.

DECLARED RESULT GRATIFYING.

Secretary Hitchcock Expresses His Views on the Election.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Secretary Hitchcock, who returned from Missouri, expressed his views on the election results as follows:

"The American people have but in few instances elected a President to succeed himself, and President McKinley's overwhelming endorsement by the people of both parties is accordingly all the more gratifying.

His re-election is a personal triumph; an expression of the people's absolute respect and admiration for, and implicit confidence in, his personal character and of their conviction that, judging by his past administration, the nation's honor and the people's interests could not be committed to safer or wiser direction in the future.

LOUBET CONGRATULATES M'KINLEY.

Sends a Message, Owing to Result of the Election.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Among the telegrams of congratulation received by the President is the following:

Paris, Nov. 7, 1900.
His Excellency Monsieur McKinley, President United States of America.

I beg you to accept my most sincere congratulations on your re-election to the supreme office that you have filled with such lustre and during which the bonds of friendship between our two countries have, to my great delight, been drawn still closer.

Emile Loubet.

RIOT IN PORTO RICO.

Successful Republicans and Federals Fight—One Killed, 2 Wounded. Degetau Elected.

San Juan, Nov. 9.—The official returns of Tuesday's election are nearly all at hand from the various parts of the island. They show, as was anticipated and forecasted, the election by the Republicans of the entire house of delegates and of Senator Frederico Degetau as commissioner of congress.

Only 151 federals went to the polls, the total Republican vote being about 58,000.

The only disturbance thus far reported occurred when some 20 Republicans of San Juan, who were celebrating victory, visited Rio Piedras, a federal town. They were met on the outskirts by the federals, with the mayor and police. Shots were exchanged and one person was killed and two wounded. There was some rioting in the town throughout the night.

Peace reinforcements were sent there to prevent a threatened renewal of the disorders.

Entire Precinct For McKinley.

Batavia, Ill., Nov. 9.—A Republican unanimity unique in the history of political elections in the west is shown by the complete count of Tuesday's ballots here. One precinct gave its entire vote of 575 to McKinley.

Defeated Democratic Opponent.

St. Louis, Nov. 9.—W. A. Rodenburg, Republican, who was at first reported elected to congress in the Twenty-first Illinois district, is, according to the latest returns, defeated by his Democratic opponent, Fred Kern, by a majority of 237.

Democratic Candidate Chosen.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Later returns in the local contest show the election of Alexander J. Jones, Democrat, as one of the drainage trustees, instead of Lloyd J. Smith, Republican, as first reported.

Jerry Lynch Dead.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 9.—Jerry Lynch, aged 72, believed to be the last surviving member of the crew of the Confederate battleship Alabama, died at his residence in Inman Park.

NOT DONE WITH QUAY.

Anti Leaders Meet In Philadelphia.

MARTIN SAYS HE'LL BE BLOCKED.

Claims the Fusionists Will Have a Majority on Joint Ballot in the Pennsylvania Legislature—Quay Says He Will Have About 150 Votes.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Former Senator M. S. Quay, who will leave here today for Florida, gave out the following statement for publication:

The contest on Tuesday resulted in a sweeping victory for the stalwart Republicans of the state. The senate will be organized by the regulars, no matter what statements to the contrary may be made by insurgents or hostile newspapers. Senator W. P. Snyder, of Chester county, will be elected president pro tem. of the senate, and Representative W. T. Marshall, a stalwart from Allegheny county, will be elected speaker of the house. I will be elected United States senator by about 150 votes out of a total vote of 254 on the first ballot in joint assembly.

Philadelphia, Nov. 9.—Some of the leaders in the fight against the election of Colonel Quay to the senate met in this city and discussed plans for a continuation of the fight against Quay in the legislature meeting in January. Senator Martin is a Republican "hold over" from this city, as is Senator Flinn from Allegheny county. Senator Magee was re-elected by the Republicans on Tuesday from his district in Allegheny county, and Senator Cochran, who is the Democratic leader of the senate, and who was active against Mr. Quay in the last legislature, is a "hold over" from the district comprising Lycoming, Montour, Sullivan and Columbia counties.

Senator Martin in a statement made by him said:

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 9.—The anti-Quay showing in the senate and house, according to one who is in the confidence of the anti-Quay leaders, is as follows:

Senate—Republicans—Henry and Martip, of Philadelphia; Rice, of Bucks; Drury, of Luzerne; Edmiston, of Bradford; McKee, of Perry; Stewart, of Franklin; Weller, of Bedford; Magee, Flinn and Crawford, of Allegheny; Budke, of Washington; Sproul, of Chester, and Weiss, of Lebanon; total, 14. Democrats—Herbst, of Berks; Wentz, of Montgomery; Stiles, of Lehigh; Kemmer, of Northampton; Lee, of Monroe; Cochran, of Lycoming; Haines, of York; Higgins, of Schuylkill; Miller, of Cumberland; Heinle, of Center; Neely, of Clarion; Boyd, of Fayette, and Washburn, of Crawford; total, 13, or a total of anti-Quay showing of 27 in the senate.

The house anti-Quay leaders are said to be McPherson, of Adams, 11 of the 16 members of the Allegheny delegation; Crawford, of Kittanning; Sanderson, of Bedford; Hamilton, Lamox and Taylor, of Bradford; Winner, Wilkinson and Edwards, of Bucks; Allison and Thompson, of Center; Alexander, of Clearfield; Dount, of Forest; Welty, of Franklin; Reynold, of Lackawanna; Groh and Bierman, of Lebanon; three from Luzerne; Cotter and Boyne, of McKean; Foster, of Montour; Godcharles, of Northumberland; Arnold, of Perry; 11 of the 89 members from Philadelphia; Kooztz and Kendall, of Somerset; Hitchcock, of Tioga; Johnson, of Union; Baker, of Warren; Clarke, McLaren and Anderson, of Washington; Thomas, of Westmoreland, and Tiffany, of Wyoming, a total of 57.

Add to these the 45 Democrats in the house and the total anti-Quay strength, according to this estimate, in the lower body is 102 and in the joint convention 129. The key of the situation is the caucus. Should the 12 anti-Quay men who are classified go into the caucus the game would apparently be Quay's. A prominent Quay senator said that he personally knew of four members of the house who are counted as against Quay, who are, in fact, for him. Similar statements are made by the anti-Quay leaders, and as it looks now the guessing will proceed as before, until there is a show down in the caucus.

To Establish American League Clubs.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 9.—Vice President Somers, of the Cleveland American league team, left to join President Johnson, Comisky, Mack and Manning and assist them in the arrangements for establishing American league clubs in Baltimore, Washington and Philadelphia. They will report to the league in Chicago next week.

SURPRISE TO BRYAN.

The Nebraskan Comments on the Election.

PROSPERITY ARGUMENT POTENT.

Also Said the Appeal "Stand by the President While the War Is On" Had Some Effect—Will Not Accept the United States Senatorship.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 9.—William J. Bryan gave out the following statement concerning the election:

"The result was a surprise to me and the magnitude of the Republican victory was a surprise to our opponents as well as to those who voted our ticket. It is impossible to analyze the returns until they are more complete, but, speaking generally, we seem to have gained in the large cities and to have lost in the smaller cities and in the country.

"The Republicans were able to secure tickets or passes for all their voters who were away from home, and this gave them considerable advantage. We have no way of knowing at this time how much money was spent in the purchase of votes and in colonization. While these would account for some of the Republican gains they could not account for widespread increase in the Republican vote. The prosperity argument was probably the most potent one used by the Republicans. They compared present conditions with the panic times of '93 to '96, and this argument weighed with those who did not stop to consider the reasons for the change. The appeal 'stand by the President while the war is on' had a great deal of influence among those who did not realize that a war against a doctrine of self-government in the Philippines must react upon us in this country. We made an honest fight upon an honest platform, and having done our duty as we saw it we have nothing to regret.

"We are defeated, but not discouraged. The fight must go on. I am sure that Republican policies will be repudiated by the people when the tendency of these policies are fully understood. The contest between plutocracy and Democracy cannot end until one or the other is completely triumphant."

Concerning himself, Mr. Bryan said: "I have come out of the campaign with perfect health and a clear conscience. I did my most to bring success to the principles for which I stood. Mr. Stevenson did all that he could; Senator Jones and the members of the Democratic, Populist, Silver Republican and anti-imperialist committees did all they could. Mr. Hearst and his associates in the club organization put forth their best efforts. Only newspapers, our campaign speeches and our local organizations all did their part. I have no fault to find and no reproaches. I shall continue to take an active interest in politics as long as I live. I believe it to be the duty of citizens to do so, and in addition to my interest as a citizen, I feel that it will require a lifetime of work to repay the political friends who have done so much for me. Mr. Bryan said he had no other plans at present than to remain at home until he has recovered from the fatigue of campaigning. He denied the report that he would remove from Nebraska and make Texas his home.

The legislature will likely be decided by Douglas county, in which it will take official count to determine the vote. The World-Herald, Democrat, claims the lieutenant governor will cast the deciding vote in the upper house and that the lower house is evenly divided with two places in doubt.

The state Republican committee, which previously gave out the claim that Edrich and the Republican state ticket had won from 5,000 to 7,000 majority, scaled down "close to the danger line," and claimed the election of the state ticket by from 1,000 to 2,000.

In Douglas county the count is close and charges of fraud are made by the Democrats. The Republicans claim to have elected one out of three senators and six out of nine representatives, while the Democrats claim two senators and all the representatives.

The Republican committee concedes one senator to the Democrats and one representative, stating also that the official count may be required regarding two representatives. This would give the Republicans a safe majority on joint ballot.

The congressmen in this state are: Two Republican, Burkett and Mercer; three Fusion, Stark, Shallenberger and Robinson, with the Sixth district, represented by Neville, who is a candidate for re-election, still in doubt.

The Sixth district, so far as heard from, gives Neville 100 lead, but the counties of this district which have not been heard from are likely to defeat him.

DECLARED RESULT GRATIFYING.

Secretary Hitchcock Expresses His Views on the Election.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Secretary Hitchcock, who returned from Missouri, expressed his views on the election results as follows:

The American people have but in few instances elected a President to succeed himself, and President McKinley's overwhelming endorsement by the people of both parties is accordingly all the more gratifying.

His re-election is a personal triumph; an expression of the people's absolute respect and admiration for, and implicit confidence in, his personal character and of their conviction that, judging by his past administration, the nation's honor and the people's interests could not be committed to safer or wiser direction in the future.

LOUBET CONGRATULATES M'KINLEY.

Sends a Message, Owing to Result of the Election.

Paris, Nov. 7, 1900. His Excellency Monsieur McKinley, President United States of America.

I beg you to accept my most sincere congratulations on your re-election to the supreme office that you have filled with such lustre and during which the bonds of friendship between our two countries have, to my great delight, been drawn still closer.

Emile Loubet.

RIOT IN PORTO RICO.

Successful Republicans and Federal Fight—One Killed, 2 Wounded. Degetau Elected.

San Juan, Nov. 9.—The official returns of Tuesday's election are nearly all at hand from the various parts of the island. They show, as was anticipated and foretold, the election by the Republicans of the entire house of delegates and of Senator Frederico Degetau as commissioner of congress. Only 151 federals went to the polls, the total Republican vote being about 58,000.

The only disturbance thus far reported occurred when some 20 Republicans of San Juan, who were celebrating victory, visited Rio Piedras, a federal town. They were met on the outskirts by the federals, with the mayor and police. Shots were exchanged and one person was killed and two wounded. There was some rioting in the town throughout the night.

Peace reinforcements were sent there to prevent a threatened renewal of the disorders.

Entire Precinct For McKinley.

Batavia, Ill., Nov. 9.—A Republican unanimity unique in the history of political elections in the west is shown by the complete count of Tuesday's ballots here. One precinct gave its entire vote of 575 to McKinley.

Defeated Democratic Opponent.

St. Louis, Nov. 9.—W. A. Rodenburg, Republican, who was at first reported elected to congress in the Twenty-first Illinois district, is, according to the latest returns, defeated by his Democratic opponent, Fred Kern, by a majority of 237.

Democratic Candidate Chosen.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Later returns in the local contest show the election of Alexander J. Jones, Democrat, as one of the drainage trustees, instead of Lloyd J. Smith, Republican, as first reported.

Jerry Lynch Dead.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 9.—Jerry Lynch, aged 72, believed to be the last surviving member of the crew of the Confederate battleship Alabama, died at his residence in Inman Park.

NOT DONE WITH QUAY.

Anti Leaders Meet In Philadelphia.

MARTIN SAYS HE'LL BE BLOCKED.

Claims the Fusionists Will Have a Majority on Joint Ballot In the Pennsylvania Legislature—Quay Says He Will Have About 150 Votes.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Former Senator M. S. Quay, who will leave here today for Florida, gave out the following statement for publication:

The contest on Tuesday resulted in a sweeping victory for the stalwart Republicans of the state. The senate will be organized by the regulars, no matter what statements to the contrary may be made by insurgents or hostile newspapers. Senator W. P. Snyder, of Chester county, will be elected president pro tem. of the senate, and Representative W. T. Marshall, a stalwart from Allegheny county, will be elected speaker of the house. I will be elected United States senator by above 150 votes out of a total vote of 234 on the first ballot in joint assembly.

Philadelphia, Nov. 9.—Some of the leaders in the fight against the election of Colonel Quay to the senate met in this city and discussed plans for a continuation of the fight against Quay in the legislature meeting in January. Senator Martin is a Republican "hold over" from this city, as is Senator Flinn from Allegheny county. Senator Magee was re-elected by the Republicans on Tuesday from his district in Allegheny county, and Senator Cochran, who is the Democratic leader of the senate, and who was active against Mr. Quay in the last legislature, is a "hold over" from the district comprising Lycoming, Montour, Sullivan and Columbia counties.

Senator Martin in a statement made by him said:

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 9.—The anti-Quay showing in the senate and house, according to one who is in the confidence of the anti-Quay leaders, is as follows:

Senate—Republicans—Henry and Martip, of Philadelphia; Rice, of Bucks; Drury, of Luzerne; Edmiston, of Bradford; McKee, of Perry; Stewart, of Franklin; Weller, of Bedford; Magee, Flinn and Crawford, of Allegheny; Budke, of Washington; Sprout, of Chester, and Weiss, of Lebanon; total, 14. Democrats—Herbst, of Berks; Wentz, of Montgomery; Stiles, of Lehigh; Kemmer, of Northampton; Lee, of Monroe; Cochran, of Lycoming; Haines, of York; Higgins, of Schuylkill; Miller, of Cumberland; Heinle, of Center; Neely, of Clarion; Boyd, of Fayette, and Washburn, of Crawford; total, 13, or a total of anti-Quay showing of 27 in the senate.

The house anti-Quay leaders are said to be McPherson, of Adams, 11 of the 16 members of the Allegheny delegation; Crawford, of Kittanning; Sanderson, of Bedford; Hamilton, Lamo and Taylor, of Bradford; Winner, Wilkinson and Edwards, of Bucks; Allison and Thompson, of Center; Alexander, of Clearfield; Douth, of Forest; Welty, of Franklin; Reynolds, of Lackawanna; Groh and Bierman, of Lebanon; three from Luzerne; Cotter and Boyne, of McKean; Foster, of Montour; Godcharles, of Northumberland; Arnold, of Perry; 11 of the 89 members from Philadelphia; Koonz and Kendall, of Somerset; Hitchcock, of Tioga; Johnson, of Union; Baker, of Warren; Clarke, McLaren and Anderson, of Washington; Thomas, of Westmoreland, and Tiffany, of Wyoming, a total of 57.

Add to these the 45 Democrats in the house and the total anti-Quay strength, according to this estimate, in the lower body is 102 and in the joint convention 129. The key of the situation is the caucus. Should the 12 anti-Quay men who are classified go into the caucus the game would apparently be Quay's. A prominent Quay senator said that he personally knew of four members of the house who are counted as against Quay, who are, in fact, for him. Similar statements are made by the anti-Quay leaders, and as it looks now the guessing will proceed as before, until there is a show down in the caucus.

To Establish American League Clubs.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 9.—Vice President Somers, of the Cleveland American league team, left to join President Johnson, Comisky, Mack and Manning and assist them in the arrangements for establishing American league clubs in Baltimore, Washington and Philadelphia. They will report to the league in Chicago next week.

ONE HORSE SERIOUSLY INJURED

A team attached to the Schlather
Brewing company wagon ran off this morning on Fifth street and one of the horses was seriously injured.

The team started at the lower end of Fifth street and dashed up the street at breakneck speed. They turned into Walnut street and when near the Boyce foundry ran into the bakery wagon of Jacob Grueny. There was a general smashup and both wagons were badly damaged.

The single tree ran into the stomach of one of the horses and made a large hole. When the tree had been taken out the hook still remained in the stomach of the horse.

The team also struck a delivery
wagon of Frank Crook on Fifth street,
knocked a dresser out and broke it.

He Did Not Desire That the Devil
Should Have a Mortgage
on Him.

He is a citizen of East Liverpool,
and is quite prominent and popular.
He owns property and has houses for rent. He has one property for which he asks a rental of twenty dollars per month. An individual called on him
the other day and desired to become his tenant. He is a little particular as to the class of tenants he rents to,
and he therefore questioned the
would-be renter as to the nature of business in which he is engaged. The visitor tried to dodge the question,
but finally admitted that he is a saloon keeper and that he wanted the property for saloon purposes. He was refused, and finally offered to pay $45 per month, and pay six months'
rent in advance; and again he was refused, with the information that he could not have the property at any price. This has the right ring, and the pity is that we have not more property owners of the same class.
There must be an awful profit in the saloon business, in the mere matter
of dollars and cents, when men will offer so much more than is asked of legitimate business men. And this money, as a rule, comes from the pockets of the men who earn their living in the sweat of their faces.
'Tis an awful pity for both workmen
and saloon keepers. "For what shall it profit a man," etc.

HORSE STOLEN

A BAD RUNOFF THIS MORNING

A Team Attached to a Beer Wagon
Caused Disaster to Two
Other Wagons.

A DRESSER WAS DEMOLISHED

Collided With the Bakery Wagon
of Jacob Grueny on Walnut Street.

ONE HORSE SERIOUSLY INJURED

A team attached to the Schlather
Brewing company wagon ran off this morning on Fifth street and one of
the horses was seriously injured.

The team started at the lower
end of Fifth street and dashed up the street at breakneck speed. They turned into Walnut street and when near the Boyce foundry ran into the bakery wagon of Jacob Grueny. There was a general smashup and both wagons were badly damaged.

The single tree ran into the stomach of one of the horses and made
a large hole. When the tree had been taken out the hook still remained in the stomach of the horse.

The team also struck a delivery
wagon of Frank Crook on Fifth street,
knocked a dresser out and broke it.

Local High School Eleven Would Like
to Get That Return
Game.

Some time ago the local high school
foot ball eleven went to Wellsville
and played the high school club of that city and were defeated. The local high school boys are not the kind that are dismayed by one defeat, but
vim in anticipation of the return
game promised by Wellsville.

Now Wellsville steadily refuses to play here and make excuse after excuse when asked to fulfill their agreement before the first game was played. Liverpool stands ready to meet them any time.

Black and gray suitings, for man or boy, easily are in the lead. To get the real thing, see
THE SURPRISE CLOTHING HOUSE.

NOT IN HIS LINE.

He Did Not Desire That the Devil
Should Have a Mortgage
on Him.

He is a citizen of East Liverpool,
and is quite prominent and popular.
rent. He has one property for which he asks a rental of twenty dollars per month. An individual called on him
the other day and desired to become
his tenant. He is a little particular as
to the class of tenants he rents to,
and he therefore questioned the
would-be renter as to the nature of business in which he is engaged. The
visitor tried to dodge the question,
but finally admitted that he is a saloon keeper and that he wanted the property for saloon purposes. He was refused, and finally offered to pay $45 per month, and pay six months'
rent in advance; and again he was refused, with the information that he
price. This has the right ring, and
property owners of the same class.
There must be an awful profit in the saloon business, in the mere matter
of dollars and cents, when men will offer so much more than is asked of
legitimate business men. And this money, as a rule, comes from the
pockets of the men who earn their
living in the sweat of their faces.
'Tis an awful pity for both workmen
and saloon keepers. "For what shall
it profit a man," etc.

HORSE STOLEN

A Valuable Animal Belonging to Harry Green is Now Among the Missing.

Word was received by the authorities at city hall yesterday afternoon
that a valuable horse had been stolen from Harry Green, of Wellsville, the night before.

The missing animal is a small black mare, and is believed to have been brought in this direction.

The authorities are keeping a close watch, and should the thief be in the neighborhood he will be apprehended.

They Wear Well.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

James Plankinton, who has been ill for some time, is able to be out.

The public library directors will hold a regular monthly meeting this evening.

Rev. Clarence Manor returned to Pittsburg today after a visit with his parents.

The Daughters of Liberty and their many friends will dance this evening at Rock Springs.

The high school foot ball team and the Diamond Indians are playing this afternoon at Rock Spring.

Mrs. Henry Peterson, of Sugar street entertained a number of her friends at dinner last evening.

J. F. Constans, traveling freight agent of the Frisco line with offices in Pittsburg, was in the city yesterday on business.

The East Liverpool high school foot ball eleven will go to Lisbon next Saturday to play the high school eleven of that city.

The Belmont club members and their friends will enjoy a dance this evening at the rooms of the club in the Thompson building.

Ralph, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Smith, of Sixth street, who has been ill with measles for the past two weeks, is now able to be up.

Wm. A. Anglemeyer, who has been ill for several months, is able to be out. He suffered from the effects of sun stroke received last summer.

The household goods of Rev. W. B. Hill have been received at the freight station from Waynesburg. They were shipped to East End this afternoon.

The session of the Eastern Ohio Medical association held in this city today was largely attended and some very interesting discussions were had.

Mrs. J. D. West and Miss Ella West yesterday afternoon held a very pleasant reception at their home on Robinson street. A large number of guests were entertained.

Mrs. Amanda Watson, of Greensburg, Pa., is in the city a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Albright. After spending a few days here she will leave for a visit with Salem friends.

The Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church held a business meeting last night. Considerable business was transacted, after which ice cream and cake were served. A very pleasant time is reported by all present.

The marriage of Mr. William Maher, of Salineville, and Miss Julia Hickey, of this city, will be solemnized at St. Aloysius' Catholic church on Tuesday morning, November 22. After a short wedding trip the couple will return to this city, where they will make their future home.

After the evidence was all in yesterday in the case against Jack Reaves he insisted upon filing a complaint against Stewart, who, he said, had a coat belonging to him. Accordingly he swore out a warrant charging him with the theft, but nothing could be proved and the case was dropped. It was developed that although Reaves had possession of the coat for some time it had never belonged to him.

The Mid Season Sale Continues.

abuse the minds of some who seemed to be laboring under the impression that we have reduced our entire stocks to less than cost, etc. Not so--only such heavy winter goods as we realize should have moved more rapidly, only such stacks of goods of which we bought in greater quantities than sales so far warranted, have been reduced to actual cost or thereabouts.

And from present indications and responses, even those goods can be re-marked at normal prices before many a day. Tomorrow, and up to next Friday, 16th, however, these prices hold good.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

James Plankinton, who has been ill for some time, is able to be out.

The public library directors will hold a regular monthly meeting this evening.

Rev. Clarence Manor returned to Pittsburg today after a visit with his parents.

The Daughters of Liberty and their many friends will dance this evening at Rock Springs.

The high school foot ball team and the Diamond Indians are playing this afternoon at Rock Spring.

Mrs. Henry Peterson, of Sugar street entertained a number of her friends at dinner last evening.

J. F. Constans, travelling freight agent of the Frisco line with offices in Pittsburg, was in the city yesterday on business.

The East Liverpool high school foot ball eleven will go to Lisbon next Saturday to play the high school eleven of that city.

The Belmont club members and their friends will enjoy a dance this evening at the rooms of the club in the Thompson building.

Ralph, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Smith, of Sixth street, who has been ill with measles for the past two weeks, is now able to be up.

Wm. A. Anglemeyer, who has been ill for several months, is able to be out. He suffered from the effects of sun stroke received last summer.

The household goods of Rev. W. B. Hill have been received at the freight station from Waynesburg. They were shipped to East End this afternoon.

The session of the Eastern Ohio Medical association held in this city today was largely attended and some very interesting discussions were had.

Mrs. J. D. West and Miss Ella West yesterday afternoon held a very pleasant reception at their home on Robinson street. A large number of guests were entertained.

Mrs. Amanda Watson, of Greensburg, Pa., is in the city a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Albright. After spending a few days here she will leave for a visit with Salem friends.

The Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church held a business meeting last night. Considerable business was transacted, after which ice cream and cake were served. A very pleasant time is reported by all present.

The marriage of Mr. William Maher, of Salineville, and Miss Julia Hickey, of this city, will be solemnized at St. Aloysius' Catholic church on Tuesday morning, November 22. After a short wedding trip the couple will return to this city, where they will make their future home.

After the evidence was all in yesterday in the case against Jack Reaves he insisted upon filing a complaint against Stewart, who, he said, had a coat belonging to him. Accordingly he swore out a warrant charging him with the theft, but nothing could be proved and the case was dropped. It was developed that although Reaves had possession of the coat for some time it had never belonged to him.

The Mid Season Sale Continues.

abuse the minds of some who seemed to be laboring under the impression that we have reduced our entire stocks to less than cost, etc. Not so--only such heavy winter goods as we realize should have moved more rapidly, only such stacks of goods of which we bought in greater quantities than sales so far warranted, have been reduced to actual cost or thereabouts.

And from present indications and responses, even those goods can be re-marked at normal prices before many a day. Tomorrow, and up to next Friday, 16th, however, these prices hold good.

OFF FOR CHINA.

Rev. O. C. Crawford And Wife Are Now in East Liverpool Among Friends.

This estimable couple are well and favorably known in East Liverpool. They will leave for China on the 20th of the present month. They came here this afternoon and will remain until tomorrow morning. They will be at the residence of the reverend gentleman's sister, Mrs. Minehart, 238 Franklin avenue, tonight. The personal friends are invited to call at Mrs. Minehart's this evening for greeting and for good-bye.

ELECTION BET.

Rose Had a Free Ride Through the City Streets Yesterday Afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon a pair of white horses, gallantly decorated with red and white ribbons, were driven through the city streets by a member of the Vanity Fair company. The cat was in a basket and in some manner escaped. It was captured by a small boy and returned to its owner.

and blue ribbon attached to a laudau, were driven through the streets of the city. The people turned out en masse to see the procession.

Seated in the laudau was J. J. Rose and he presented a beautiful sight as he smoked his fragrant Havana and occasionally blew a small tin horn to announce his appearance.

On the seat of the vehicle was a man carrying a banner bearing the inscription: "I am paying for Rose's ride. This is the result of betting on Bryan."

FRED MALCOLM

WOULDN'T GO TO SCHOOL AND COMPLAINT WAS MADE.

Constable Miller Arrested Him And He Had a Hearing Before Squire McLane.

Fred Malcolm was arrested this morning by Constable Miller at his home on Church alley and locked up in the city jail.

The boy is but 10 years of age and for the past two years his parents have been unable to do anything with him. He refuses to attend school, and at the beginning of the present term complaint was made against him by the truant officer, but he promised to do better and was not prosecuted, but it seems he paid no attention whatever to the promises, and the authorities have been after him for two weeks.

Now that he has been apprehended the authorities are at a loss to know just what disposition to make of the case, but it is probable he will be given another chance.

BENTLEYS STATEMENT

On the Sewing Machine and Mrs. Bentley Told Him She Did Not Want the Machine.

I, the plaintiff in the case, tried in Squire McCarron's court on November 7, wish to contradict the statement made at the trial and published in last night's News Review.

Mr. Baxter made no repeated efforts to get the balance due on the machine, as my wife told him it was not worth 12 cents let alone $12, and told him we did not want it. He said he knew another person he could sell it to, and agreed to refund the money already paid on it, as he was anxious to dispose of the machine, as he (Mr. Baxter) was short of money; and had a payment to make on property on Pleasant Heights, and it has since been learned that he traded the sewing machine for a heifer's calf.

EASTERN STAR.

Held a Meeting Last Evening And Elected Officers for the Coming Year.

Mrs. Mary McClure, worthy matron; John Nice, worthy patron; Miss Kate Burton, associate matron; Miss Maude Croxall, secretary; Mrs. Nellie Rhodes, treasurer; Miss Etta Horwell, conductress; Mrs. Mary Nailor, associate conductress.

Cat Escaped.

Some excitement was caused at the passenger station this morning by a cat belonging to a member of the Vanity Fair company. The cat was in a basket and in some manner escaped. It was captured by a small boy and returned to its owner.

STREET CAR LINE TO BE OPENED

The First Car Will Be Run to Riverview Cemetery In the Morning.

ONLY ONE CAR TO BE USED

Will Leave the Diamond Every 30 Minutes For Points Along Calcutta Road.

THE RESIDENTS CAN RIDE NOW

The new street car line to Riverview cemetery and Grandview will be formally opened tomorrow.

There will be no display of trumpets or any kind of a celebration to mark the affair, but a car will be put on the line early in the morning and residents of that part of the city who want to ride home can do so.

A regular schedule has not yet been made out, but a car will leave the Diamond every half hour, as it is the intention at present to only put one car on the line.

The car to be used will be fitted with the latest improved safety devices, so that there will be no more danger in coming down the hill than there is when the car is on the level.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

A Number of Local Teachers Will Go to Fairview to Attend the Session.

On Saturday, November 10, 1900, there will be a teachers' institute in Fairview. The program is as follows:

Institute will convene at 1:30 p. m.

COLONEL WINSHIP

Thanks the News Review and Makes a Correction in Regard to His Position as a Toiler and Worker.

Cleveland, Nov. 8, 1900.

Mr. Harry Palmer, East Liverpool, O.
My Dear Sir—I thank you very much for your flattering report of my speech on Monday evening. On the whole it is a fair statement of the positions taken by me; but there is one error, and that is in relation to my present position as a "toiler and worker." The 10 years referred to were 10 years from the time I was 13 years old. I began working in a country blacksmith shop when I was 8 years old. Since 1869 I have been an attorney-at-law.

Very truly yours,

JOHN O. WINSHIP.

MARRIED.

Squire McCarron United the Lives of a Young Couple This Morning.

E. Proctor were last evening at 8 o'clock married by Squire McCarron at his office.

The squire telephoned to Lisbon for the license and 20 minutes from the time they entered the office they emerged man and wife.

The contracting parties hail from Arkansas, but have been residents of the city for some time.

POSTPONED

THERE WILL BE NO JOLLIFICATION THIS EVENING.

The Weather Interfered And the Demonstration Will Take Place Next Tuesday Evening.

The Republican jollification to have been held this evening has been postponed on account of the weather. The celebration will take place, however, on next Tuesday evening, when it is expected there will be an unusually large turnout.

AWARDED A CONTRACT.

William McLane, of West Point, Will Build the Stone Bridge at Dry Run.

The contract for building a stone bridge over Dry Run was let yesterday by the county commissioners, William McLane being the lowest bidder.

There were three bidders, John Schmelzenbach, Dolby & Mackall, the latter two contractors bidding together, their figure being 7.25 a perch. Schmelzenbach bid $6.75, while McLane offered to do the work for $6.45 a perch.

Messrs. French, George and Bowman, in company with Prosecutor Brookes, were present, and among other things specified that the contract could be completed by Dec. 8.

TWO COMMON JAGS WERE ARRESTED

Andy Boyle, a Hobo From Pittsburgh Walked Into Town and Incidentally to Jail.

WILL HAVE TO WALK OUT AGAIN

The essence of corn juice maketh a man drunk and no person knows this better than two offenders who faced the mayor this morning.

Charles Shepherd has a splendid name, but he imbibeth at various times and when Charles taketh on a load of that which maketh a fool of a man he appeareth on the streets and annoyeth the populace. Yesterday afternoon he was filled to the brim and was totally unable to walk in the straight and narrow path, in fact it took the whole sidewalk for him.

The city of East Liverpool does not pay for sidewalks for the use of one man, so when Officers Davidson and Aufderheide spied Shepherd he was conveyed to the city jail and put to sleep on one of those nice iron beds that have been prepared for the wayward. It cost him just $1 and costs and he departed his way this morning a poorer but wiser man.

Andy Doyle is a traveler of no small importance. Andy don't ride in Pullman palace sleepers, but prefers to use his feet, so that he can more thoroughly enjoy the scenery of the country. He arrived in this city from Pittsburgh yesterday and filled up with East Liverpool booze. Wood and Bryan got him and he was taken to city hall and given a chance to make a thorough inspection of the city jail.

This morning Mayor Davidson told him it would cost him just $1 and costs. He didn't have the cash, and as there is no prospect of him getting it he will probably be told to leave the city as soon as possible.

Sebring News.

Bert Thompson and wife, of Cincinnati, arrived in Sebring Monday. Mr. Thompson is a kiln man and is engaged at the Sebring Pottery company.

Jonathan Hughes, Sr., brother of our genial handler at the Oliver China company, has accepted a position at East Liverpool. Mr. Hughes is a turner of 60 years standing, and thoroughly understands this business.

For the year from the 6th of November, 1899, to the 6th of November, 1900, there were 258 bisque and glost kilns drawn at the pottery of the Oliver China company. This is considered good work.

REAVES BOUND OVER TO COURT

A Number of Witnesses Were Examined and All Told the Same Story.

TWO PEOPLE HELD AS WITNESSES

Jack Reaves, alias Jack Lee, alias Jack Hubert, alias Jack the Ripper and a few others, was given a hearing yesterday afternoon before Mayor Davidson on a charge of shooting "Dunk" Stewart with intent to kill. The details of the affair were given yesterday.

About 25 colored people had congregated in the mayor's office by 1:30 o'clock, including several women, and considerable delay was occasioned in awaiting the arrival of Prosecutor Brookes.

Finally at about 2:30 the mayor concluded to go ahead with the case, and George Stewart, the victim, Beatrice Wells, Walter Brown, William Green, Jessie Alexander and John Booker were sworn for the state.

Walter Brown was the first witness called and he testified as follows:

"Was a resident of Liverpool; resided at 204 Fairview street; was a potter by trade and had met Reaves at Jack Robinson's place between 11 and 12 o'clock yesterday. Prisoner and him had gone out, but returned in about an hour, when Reaves had noticed Jessie Alexander and asked her for a cigarette. He called the girl, but she refused to go where he was. Booker and Stewart had something to say at this point, and Brown heard the shot fired, but did not see Reaves or any one else with a revolver. He heard the second attempt to shoot and heard the revolver snap. He had ran in where the noise came from and nearly ran into the gun in the hands of Reaves. Witness had heard Reaves say he would 'kill every one' in the place. Stewart and Reaves had no trouble previous

to the shooting that he knew of.

George Stewart was next called and said he was from Chester, but hadn't been there long. He knew defendant in this case; had met him yesterday in Jack Robinson's place, at which time an argument was indulged in between him and Reaves, the latter claiming witness owed him a dollar. He finally admitted it was only 75 cents and later said he didn't know what it was. Witness insisted he owed him but 25 cents. John Booker spoke up and said he would pay the dollar if Stewart owed it to him rather than to have any trouble, but witness would not let him. Reaves then called to the Alexander woman to come over where he was, but she refused and Booker advised him to let her alone. At this Reaves had whipped out a revolver and fired directly at him, the ball taking effect in his right breast. Reaves then turned his attention to Booker and snapped the gun three times, but it failed to go off. Defendant had by this time gotten near the back door and made his escape up the alley.

Jessie Alexander was next examined and from her testimony she knew very little about the case. She had been behind the piano when the shooting occurred and did not know who had fired the shot. Prisoner asked witness at conclusion of her testimony if she had seen any one else.

Witness had seen a revolver in it, with which he blazed away at Stewart, then snapped it three times at Booker. He made his way back through the hall and into the alley. She saw "Hun" Brown go through the window, and then went with the bunch that took Stewart to the doctor.

John Booker--Trouble had started when he advised Reaves to let Jessie Alexander alone. He heard defendant make use of words accredited to him by Brown and others, and saw him shoot Stewart. He was within a few feet of the man when the shots were fired, and when he hit Stewart, Reaves had turned and snapped the revolver three times at him, but it didn't go off. Witness couldn't be mistaken in the man.

William Green was next called and told his story in a manner that would indicate he had learned it well. He had seen the whole thing "wid dese eyes I has in my head now." He told about the colored people enjoying themselves during the afternoon, how they had indulged in a little crap game, and all had been so peaceable until the shooting. He had no hesitancy in identifying the gun with which the shooting had been done. He described it as a 32-calibre Iver Johnson harmless gun. Either Green or the authorities are wrong about the gun that did the deed, as one revolver had been taken from Reaves earlier in the day and the one found in the back yard after the shooting was not the one identified by Green.

Mayor Davidson bound Reaves over to court in the sum of $500. John Booker and William Green were held for witnesses when the case comes up in court, and the former's release was secured by money in a local building and loan company, while Green will go to Lisbon, where he will be held until the case comes to trial. He will be sent to Lisbon today or Saturday.

QUAIL SEASON

Hunters Should Remember That They Must Have Written Permit of Land Owner.

The quail hunting season opens on Saturday. Hunters should not fail to remember that a written permit must be obtained from the owner or tenant of land before hunting can be done upon it.

They should also remember that it is not necessary for farmers to post notices to the effect that hunting is forbidden on their lands. Hunters must have a written permit, whether such notices be posted or not.

We have made a special effort this season to please the young men, and we have made up a special line of suits and overcoats, in blacks and gray oxfords. Goods that are equal, in style and finish, to any merchant tailor production.

Walters was unloading potatoes at
Frank Oyster's and when Motorman
James McKinnon rang his gong at the crossing of Walnut street he started
to the horses to get them out of
fast he didn't hardly get the horses
started when the car struck the wagon, knocked the horses down and
threw it against a delivery wagon
of Oyster's, turning the Oyster wagon
over and badly damaging it, the side
being torn out, the shafts broken and
the glass broken out of the front part
of the wagon. Walters' team was dragged a short distance by the car
and badly bruised.

One of the wagons was thrown on
the sidewalk and almost through one
store.

A NEW RECORD.

President McKinley Has Established
One by Receiving 292 Electoral Votes.

If, as it appears, McKinley has 292
electors, he will establish a new record, for the greatest number heretofore given any candidate was 286 in 1872, the year that Greeley made the hopeless fight.

McKinley did pretty well four years
ago with 271 electors, but that was exceeded by Cleveland in 1892 with 277. The next best record was made in 1852, when Franklin Pierce had 254 electors, leaving but 42 to Winfield
Scott, who came within 215,000 of having as many votes as Pierce had.

But the greatest victory was 1820,
when Monroe, with 231 electors, was
successful over John Quincy Adams,
who had but one elector. In the contest between Lincoln and McClellan,
Lincoln had 212 electors to 21 for Mc-Clellan, yet the popular vote was not so marked in its difference, for in a vote of 4,000,000 Lincoln was only a little more than 400,000 ahead.

Garfield's popular vote was only about 7,000 in excess of that cast for Hancock, yet Garfield had 214 electors
while Hancock had but 155.

When Harrison defeated Cleveland
in 1888, with 233 electors to 168 for Cleveland, Harrison lacked almost 100,000 of having as many votes as Cleveland.

The same peculiarity was noticed
when Hayes defeated Tilden, the difference of the popular vote in Tilden's
favor being 250,000.

When Andrew Jackson defeated
Henry Clay in 1820, with 219 electors,
he had only 687,000 votes. When Cleveland defeated Blaine in 1884,
with 219 electors, he had 4,911,000
votes.

HEAR THIS MAN.

You Will Have a Genuine Treat in the Way of Convincing Arguments.
Don't Miss It.

Rev. Louis Banks, who will speak at the First Methodist church next Monday evening, is one of the brainiest men in the country. He was brought up in the far northwest. While yet very young he entered the ministry and preached several years on the frontier among the Indians. When the anti-Chinese riots broke out in 1885
Mr. Banks was stationed in Seattle and had some stirring experiences.
There were times during the year
1886 when, as a member of the Home Guards, he did not remove his clothes or lie down for a moment's rest for four days at a stretch.

Later Mr. Banks was transferred to a church in Boston and there became famous for his work among the poor.
A result of his experience in that work was the publication of a book entitled "White Slave," which was eagerly read by thousands. Lyman Abbott said of this book: "Since Kingsley's 'Alton Locke' there has been no indictment more severely just, of present industrial conditions."

Dr. Banks is a vigorous, earnest, eloquent speaker. You are most cordially invited to hear him at 8 o'clock next Monday evening. Admission free.

MADE A CHANGE

The Official Count Cuts the McKinley Vote Down 50 in This City and Township.

The official count of the vote of the county made quite a change in the Liverpool vote as a mistake of 50 was found, making McKinley's vote
2,761 and Taylor's 2,117.

The vote of Bryan was one less than given in the News Review table of Wednesday, while Morris received two more, making his vote 907.

The News Review table was the most accurate printed, as the mistake of 50 votes was made by the election officers, and if added to McKinley's vote would have given him 2,811, just two more votes than given in our table of Wednesday.

In the case of Hon. R. W. Taylor with the 50 votes added, his vote is 2,767, or exactly what the News Review had it.

BURY THE HATCHET.

It is the custom in some communities for all political parties to jubilate indiscriminately, irrespective of partisanship, after the presidential issue has been decided, making the jubilee an oh-to-be-joyful one, doing away with all bitterness, and thus more firmly uniting friends and neighbors in the bond of friendship. This is the spirit which should control and animate our citizens in Tuesday's jubilee. Bury the hatchet.

JUBILATE TUESDAY NIGHT.

And do it in a nice and agreeable manner. Sound money Democrats all over the land voted with the Republican party. This great victory of ours was won by the people; men gifted with good, common business sense, and the victory will prove a blessing even to those who voted for William Jennings Bryan. The rejoicing of Tuesday next is simply in the way of thanks that the nation escaped a great calamity.

BILL BRYAN.

He made the mistake of believing himself the whole thing—the whole Democratic party. He forced his obnoxious pet theory of 16 to 1 upon the Democratic party, at the command of his employers, the silver kings and trusts, and was repudiated by long-headed business Democrats all over the land. He was defeated in his own state, his own county, his own ward and his own precinct. Farewell, Mr. William Jennings Bryan. A final goodbye.

THE PROHIBS.

We rejoice in the fact that we have some good friends among the Prohibitionists in East Liverpool. There be some of them who are level-headed, fair and courteous gentlemen; and then there be some who are absolutely fanatical in their hatred of the Republican party; and the venting of the spleen of this class has driven voters away from the Prohibition ranks. We have a specimen of this latter class in mind this morning, as we read a letter written to us by him—a letter which he desires we shall publish in this paper; a letter full of hate and malice against Republicans. We respectfully decline to give it a place in these columns, largely for the reason that it would do harm and injury to the better and more sensible class of Prohibitionists, and injure their party, as has lately been the result of unwise platform speakers, men who imagine that abuse is argument and wisdom.

J. J. LENTZ DEFEATED.

Tompkins Won by a Margin of Eight Votes.

Before the Count Was Declared Lentz Announced, if It Was Against Him, He Would Take Such Action—McKin-ley's Plurality Over 71,000.

Columbus O., Nov. 9.—The official count in the Twelfth Ohio congressional district completed gives Emmett Tompkins, Republican, a majority of eight votes over John J. Lentz, Democrat, the present representative. The district is nominally about 2,500 Democratic. During the late session of congress Mr. Lentz took a prominent part in the investigation of the Cour d'Alene mining troubles and was very severe in his criticism of the administration.

Colonel Nevins' plurality in the Dayton district has been officially declared to be 153, and Mr. Bickley, his Democratic opponent, says he will not contest. Lentz had already announced that if the count went against him he would contest, and have the President, Senator Hanna and Chairman Dick called as witnesses. Lentz asserts that a large number of the students at the State university and the medical colleges perjured themselves when they swore they were residents and entitled to vote. He is also incensed at the numerous prominent Democrats, including ex-Congressman Outhwaite, who worked against him. With Monroe county to hear from, Chairman Dick, of the Republican state committee, figures McKinley's plurality in Ohio of 71,017.

TWO MORE BODIES FOUND.

One That of Moorehouse, Missing Clerk, Whom Fire Authorities Thought Alive.

New York, Nov. 9.—Two bodies were taken from the ruins of the Tarrant building. The first was that of Hamilton Matthews, a driver for Tarrant & Co. The remains were shockingly mutilated.

Later the diggers in the ruins came across the body of Benjamin Moorehouse, the missing shipping and stock clerk of the company. Moorehouse was 51 years of age. With him in all probability died also all possibility of explaining the fire horror.

Moorehouse lived at Mont Clair, N. J. Fire department officials insisted all along that the clerk was purposely keeping out of the way.

CONGER REPORTS PROGRESS.

Sent Word as to Negotiations to Reach a Peace Agreement.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Additional reports from Mr. Conger record the progress of the efforts being made at Pekin to bring the foreign ministers to an agreement as to the basis of negotiations with China. The department still declines to make public any of the details of the deliberations of the ministers, and it appears that this reticence is a matter of international agreement, the purpose being to avoid presenting any of the differences that may arise from time to time to the notice of the Chinese plenipotentiaries who might use them to serve their own ends. However, the statement is reiterated that progress is being made toward a satisfactory conclusion, and it is hoped that within a short time it will be possible to least initiate the formal negotiations with Chinese plenipotentiaries.

No advice has yet been received here confirming the report that Russia has annexed territory in Chih Li province, and the impression prevails that if the Russians have occupied any territory there it is simply a military movement in preparation for the maintenance of the Russian forces at a suitable base on the road to Pekin for the approaching winter.

Yellow Fever at Natchez.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 9.—One case of yellow fever was reported to the state board of health from Natchez. Mrs. Butler, the first patient reported, died. She was a niece of former Governor Long, now of Ohio. A surgeon of the marine hospital service is now in Natchez endeavoring to trace the source of infection.

Bryan Congratulates the President.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 9.—William J. Bryan forwarded the following telegram to President McKinley:

"Hon. William McKinley, President of the United States—At the close of another presidential campaign it is my lot to congratulate you upon a second victory.
W. J. Bryan."

SUBURBAN NEWS.

EAST END.

HIT A WAGON.

STREET CAR BADLY DEMOLISHED A WHEEL.

It is Claimed the Accident Was Due to Carelessness on the Part of the Motorman.

At 9:30 this morning as William Allison, who drives for Lorenzo McMillan, was proceeding along the river road at a point just above the Thompson pottery with a wagon heavily laden with casks from one of the river potteries his wagon was struck by street car No. 12, Motorman J. A. Allison, and one of the rear wheels completely demolished. The driver had crossed the track and had not gotten clear of the car when struck. It was necessary to unload the wagon on the river bank before the wreck could be cleared away. Had the motorman been a little more careful he could easily have seen that the wagon was in the way.

Patrons of the line were compelled to transfer in several inches of mud for some time.

AN ACCIDENT.

R. H. Cox, a Tender at the Laughlin Pottery, Was Seriously Injured Yesterday.

R. H. Cox, a tender employed on the Laughlin No. 2 improvements being made, was seriously injured yesterday by being hit on the left side of his head with a brick.

He was tending bricklayers and was in the act of sending up some brick with a block and tackle and was stooping over when hit. Workmen were engaged on the top of the kiln under course of construction, and one of the bricklayers was dressing the brick in wedge shape when it slipped from his hand, striking Cox on the head.

The gentleman was compelled to lay off owing to the injury which is giving him considerable pain.

Will Play a Game.

A game has at last been arranged between the National Guards and the Royal Tigers of East End.

The game will be played on Monday afternoon, November 19, at Columbian park. Both teams are confident of winning, and as they have both been strengthened very much, a nervy, hot contest can be expected.

Met Last Night.

Trusses at the E. E. Pharmacy.

He is Very Ill.

Jesse Smith, of Smith's Ferry, is very ill, and his death is thought to be the question of but a few days. The gentleman is very old, being over 80 years of age, and is one of the best known pioneer residents of the community.

Take prescriptions to the E. E. Pharmacy.

Waited in the Snow.

A number of East End women and children were compelled to stand around in the snow again this morning while they waited the arrival of the trains.

Will Play at Lisbon.

The Royal Tigers will play the Lisbon eleven next Saturday at Lisbon, and are confident of winning, as their team has been strengthened materially.

Potters' sponges at the E. E. Pharmacy.

SOUTH SIDE.

Entertained at Luncheon. New Cumberland Independent.

Mrs. W. C. Mahan, of Arroyo, W. Va., gave a pretty luncheon on Friday, November 2, in honor of her two sisters, Mrs. Grosshans, of East Liverpool, O., and Mrs. Chaney, of Wells-ville, brides of a recent date. The party numbered 12, the following ladies being present: Mrs. W. C. Aiken, Mrs. A. P. Howard, Mrs. John Porter, Mrs. C. E. Brenneman, Mrs. W. V. Powell, Mrs. Grosshans, Mrs. E. W. Hewitt, Mrs. Chaney, Mrs. Philip Smith, Mrs. H. C. Brenneman, Mrs. William Riley and Mrs. R. M. Cowl.

Limestone Received.

The limestone for the walks at Rock Springs has arrived at the freight station, and work will be started at once laying the same. The balance of the extensive improvements will be made some time before January 1 and when they are completed some $2,000 will have been expended.

Sprained His Knee.

Mike Kinney, foreman of the work gang on this section of the Panhandle road, while alighting from the train near Arroyo, slipped and fell, spraining his knee.

Kinney resides in Chester and was assisted aboard the noon train and brought to this place. He will not be able to resume work for some time.

Arguing Politics.

The individual known to the employees of the Rock Springs line as the "Southside Kid," was so jubilant over the result of the election that he had not recovered at an early hour this morning. When seen last night he was still arguing politics, at least his wife was so informed.

Raised the Track.

The Panhandle section crew have been working for several days in the lower end of town, and the track for a distance of 100 yards has been raised several inches.

Wiring.

The Battleship Kentucky May Stimulate Action on U. S. Consul's Demand.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The instructions of the state department to United States Gunners at Tangier, under which he acted, were to collect an indemnity from the Moorish government for the murder of Marcus Essagin, a naturalized American citizen, who was killed about a year ago by a mob.

It so happens that the big battleship Kentucky is making her way through the Mediterranean to Manila, and if she touches at a Moorish port, as she would be very likely to do, her presence may have a beneficial effect in stimulating action upon the consul's demands.

EVENTS IN BRIEF.

Population of Maine announced as 694,446.

New lord mayor of London sworn in. His daughter will be lady mayoress, his wife having died last winter.

Schooner Wing wrecked near St. Joseph, Mich. Captain Gettner and Peter Larson, the crew, almost frozen to death.

Admiral Dewey removed his collection of gifts from hall of American history, in National museum, Washington, to his home.

Paul Schubert, of Lancaster, Pa., instantly killed by 1,000 volts of electricity in Newark, N. J.

The soldiers' and sailors' monument, erected at a cost of almost $50,000, and dedicated by President McKinley, at Peoria, Ill., may be sold because of the inability of the committee in charge to raise $13,000 still due on it.

Resolution introduced in Vermont legislature, asking congress to take some recognition of services of Captain Charles Clark, formerly of the battleship Oregon, in Spanish-American war; also directing Vermont senators and congressmen to work for it.

Body of young woman, found dead in the Palmer house, Chicago, with a half empty bottle of carbolic acid beside her, identified as Miss Bernita F. Clark, Rockford, Ill. Her father formerly a prominent physician. Miss Clark served as a nurse during the Spanish-American war and recently had been attending University of Chicago.

Mrs. Salma Oie Kerr, recently so badly injured in the Adirondacks by Dr. Charles F. Dade accidentally shooting her that her leg had to be amputated, was married to Charles F. Bailey, of Philadelphia. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Bartholomew, of New Windsor, at the home of the bride in New York. Bailey struck in back by same bullet.

A Banquet to General Howard.

New York, Nov. 9.—A banquet in honor of the seventieth birthday of General O. O. Howard was given by some of his friends. Senator Chauncey M. Depew presided and addresses were delivered by the Rev. Dr. J. H. Barrows, of Oberlin; T. B. Reed, Captain Mahan, of the United States navy, and Booker T. Washington.

Three Fatally Injured.

Joliet, Ill., Nov. 9.—A passenger train on the Rock Island railroad, ran down awagon and fatally injured three occupants and slightly injured two others near New Lenox. The fatally injured are James Jarvis, Mrs. John Thompson and Mrs. James Terrill, severe bruises and injured internally.

Senator Wolcott Surely Beaten.

Denver, Nov. 9.—Fusionists will have a majority of 74 on joint ballot in the Colorado legislature, which will elect a successor to United States Senator Wolcott.

Fractured Allen's Skull.

Youngstown, Nov. 9.—While a party of Republicans were firing a cannon at Strathers, preparatory to holding a big celebration, it exploded, a piece striking John Allen on the head and fracturing his skull and causing fatal injury.

SURPRISE TO BRYAN.

The Nebraskan Comments on the Election.

PROSPERITY ARGUMENT POTENT.

"The result was a surprise to me and the magnitude of the Republican victory was a surprise to our opponents as well as to those who voted our ticket. It is impossible to analyze the returns until they are more complete, but, speaking generally, we seem to have gained in the large cities and to have lost in the smaller cities and in the country.

"The Republicans were able to secure tickets or passes for all their voters who were away from home, and this gave them considerable advantage. We have no way of knowing at this time how much money was spent in the purchase of votes and in colonization. While these would account for some of the Republican gains they could not account for widespread increase in the Republican vote. The prosperity argument was probably the most potent one used by the Republicans. They compared present conditions with the panic times of '93 to '96, and this argument weighed with those who did not stop to consider the reasons for the change. The appeal 'stand by the President while the war is on' had a great deal of influence among those who did not realize that a war against a doctrine of self-government in the Philippines must react upon us in this country. We made an honest fight upon an honest platform, and having done our duty as we saw it we have nothing to regret.

"We are defeated, but not discouraged. The fight must go on. I am sure that Republican policies will be repudiated by the people when the tendency of these policies are fully understood. The contest between plutocracy and Democracy cannot end until one or the other is completely triumphant."

Concerning himself, Mr. Bryan said: "I have come out of the campaign with perfect health and a clear conscience. I did my most to bring success to the principles for which I stood. Mr. Stevenson did all that he could; Senator Jones and the members of the Democratic, Populist, Silver Republican and anti-imperialist committees did all they could. Mr. Hearst and his associates in the club organization put forth their best efforts. Only newspapers, our campaign speeches and our local organizations all did their part. I have no fault to find and no reproaches. I shall continue to take an active interest in politics as long as I live. I believe it to be the duty of citizens to do so, and in addition to my interest as a citizen, I feel that it will require a lifetime of work to repay the political friends who have done so much for me. I shall not be a senatorial candidate before the legislature which has been elected. Senator Allen deserves the senatorship, which goes to the Populists. Mr. Hitchcock and Mr. W. H. Thompson are avowed candidates for the senatorship. They both deserve well of the party and I am too grateful to them for past support to stand in their way, even if I desired a seat in the senate."

Mr. Bryan said he had no other plans at present than to remain at home until he has recovered from the fatigue of campaigning. He denied the report that he would remove from Nebraska and make Texas his home.

TALK OF REORGANIZATION.

Gov. Stone Says Democratic Party Don't Need It—Views of Some Present and Past Leaders.

New Orleans, Nov. 9.—The New Orleans Picayune sent telegraphic requests to many leading Democrats in various sections of the country, asking expressions with reference to the future of the Democratic party. The following are extracts from some of the replies:

Hoke Smith, Atlanta, Ga.: "A party which can poll the enormous vote that the Democratic party has recently polled is far from being a dead party. More conservative councils will prevail in future Democratic conventions and with a pronounced sound money platform in 1904, with a man against whom no factional fight can be made, there is every reason to believe the party will triumph." Horace Boies, of Iowa, says in part: "My belief is we should drop 16 to 1. Let the money question rest while conditions remain as at present; organize Democratic clubs in every voting precinct to send delegates to county, from county to state and from state to national convention, of delegates to meet periodically and formulate a platform for the party. This should be based on principles enunciated in our declaration of independence."

New York, Nov. 9.—Governor Stone, vice chairman of the national Democratic committee, said in part in regard to the proposed reorganization of the Democracy:

"This talk about a reorganization is absurd. The Democratic party is already organized. If by reorganization is meant a change in the national committee that will have to be done at the next national convention. If by reorganization is meant radical change of platform, with a candidate whose views will accord with it, that will also have to wait the next national convention."

"If the next national convention wants a new national committee I am willing to abide by the verdict of the convention. I have noted that those men who clamor for reorganization after defeat are the very ones who contributed to the defeat."

Don M. Dickinson said that previous to the election a meeting was held in New York to discuss the reorganization of the party, and it was decided to issue a call signed by Grover Cleveland, William C. Whitney, Abram S. Hewitt and other prominent Democrats as the first step to bring this about. Mr. Dickinson was here a few days before the election and had a conference with ex-President Cleveland. Mr. Dickinson says that a call will be issued in two weeks appealing to all Democrats to unite upon a declaration of principles on which the party can be assured of victory four years hence.

William C. Whitney says that free silver and imperialism were responsible for Bryan's defeat and adds that when the Democracy surrenders to a man who twice loses New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Indiana, "our old battle grounds," by majorities unprecedented in the history of our country, it is evident that rigorous measures in the way of repudiating false gods and false principles are required.

Abram S. Hewitt, "the father of the gold Democrats," said he had heard nothing of Mr. Dickinson's project, but thought it a sensible thing to do and that it ought to be done.

Nothing has been heard from ex-President Cleveland.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 9.—Former Senator David B. Hill has received several hundred telegrams from Democrats in this and other states asking that he suggest a plan whereby the Democratic party might be reorganized. Asked to make a statement, Mr. Hill said: "I have been flooded with telegrams asking me what should be done. I have as yet made no statement, but may do so later."

Washington, Nov. 9.—Ex-Senator Gorman, of Maryland, was asked his views on the reorganization of the Democratic party and replied in part: "It is too early to talk or even to think about reorganization. The defeat was so overwhelming, and the knockout so complete that we must have time to recover our breath before making any predictions or calculations as to the future policy of the Democratic party."

M'KINLEY HAS NEBRASKA.

But Poynter, the Fusion Candidate, Has Veay Likely Been Elected Governor.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 9.—Complete returns from two-thirds of the counties in Nebraska, and scattering returns from the balance, show McKinley has carried Nebraska by a plurality of at least 2,000. An equal number of returns on the state ticket indicate that fusionists have re-elected Governor Poynter and the entire state ticket by pluralities ranging from 500 to 1,800 over the Republicans, the governor being high man.

If the balance of the state shall show the same percentage of gain and loss, Poynter's election is certain and the counties to be heard from being mostly in the western part of the state, it is fair to presume that this is the case.

The legislature will likely be decided by Douglas county, in which it will take official count to determine the vote. The World-Herald, Democrat, claims the lieutenant governor will cast the deciding vote in the upper house and that the lower house is evenly divided with two places in doubt.

The state Republican committee, which previously gave out the claim that Edrich and the Republican state ticket had won from 5,000 to 7,000 majority, scaled down "close to the danger line," and claimed the election of the state ticket by from 1,000 to 2,000.

In Douglas county the count is close and charges of fraud are made by the Democrats. The Republicans claim to have elected one out of three senators and six out of nine representatives, while the Democrats claim two senators and all the representatives.

The Republican committee concedes one senator to the Democrats and one representative, stating also that the official count may be required regarding two representatives. This would give the Republicans a safe majority on joint ballot.

The congressmen in this state are: Two Republican, Burkett and Mercer, three Fusion, Stark, Shallenberger and Robinson, with the Sixth district, represented by Neville, who is a candidate for re-election, still in doubt.

The Sixth district, so far as heard from, gives Neville 100 lead, but the counties of this district which have not been heard from are likely to defeat him.

DECLARED RESULT GRATIFYING.

Secretary Hitchcock Expresses His Views on the Election.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Secretary Hitchcock, who returned from Missouri, expressed his views on the election results as follows:

The American people have but in few instances elected a President to succeed himself, and President McKinley's overwhelming endorsement by the people of both parties is accordingly all the more gratifying.

His re-election is a personal triumph; an expression of the people's absolute respect and admiration for, and implicit confidence in, his personal character and of their conviction that, judging by his past administration, the nation's honor and the people's interests could not be committed to safer or wiser direction in the future.

LOUBET CONGRATULATES M'KINLEY.

Sends a Message, Owing to Result of the Election.

Paris, Nov. 7, 1900. His Excellency Monsieur McKinley, President United States of America.

I beg you to accept my most sincere congratulations on your re-election to the supreme office that you have filled with such lustre and during which the bonds of friendship between our two countries have, to my great delight, been drawn still closer.

Emile Loubet.

San Juan, Nov. 9.—The official returns of Tuesday's election are nearly all at hand from the various parts of the island. They show, as was anticipated and forecasted, the election by the Republicans of the entire house of delegates and of Senator Federico Degetau as commissioner of congress. Only 151 federals went to the polls, the total Republican vote being about 58,000.

The only disturbance thus far reported occurred when some 20 Republicans of San Juan, who were celebrating victory, visited Rio Piedras, a federal town. They were met on the outskirts by the federals, with the mayor and police. Shots were exchanged and one person was killed and two wounded. There was some rioting in the town throughout the night.

Peace reinforcements were sent there to prevent a threatened renewal of the disorders.

Entire Precinct For McKinley.

Defeated Democratic Opponent.

St. Louis, Nov. 9.—W. A. Rodenburg, Republican, who was at first reported elected to congress in the Twenty-first Illinois district, is, according to the latest returns, defeated by his Democratic opponent, Fred Kern, by a majority of 237.

Democratic Candidate Chosen.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Later returns in the local contest show the election of Alexander J. Jones, Democrat, as one of the drainage trustees, instead of Lloyd J. Smith, Republican, as first reported.

Jerry Lynch Dead.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 9.—Jerry Lynch, aged 72, believed to be the last surviving member of the crew of the Confederate battleship Alabama, died at his residence in Inman Park.

NOT DONE WITH QUAY.

MARTIN SAYS HE'LL BE BLOCKED.

Claims the Fusionists Will Have a Majority on Joint Ballot in the Pennsylvania Legislature—Quay Says He Will Have About 150 Votes.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Former Senator M. S. Quay, who will leave here today for Florida, gave out the following statement for publication:

The contest on Tuesday resulted in a sweeping victory for the stalwart Republicans of the state. The senate will be organized by the regulars, no matter what statements to the contrary may be made by insurgents or hostile newspapers. Senator W. P. Snyder, of Chester county, will be elected president pro tem. of the senate, and Representative W. T. Marshall, a stalwart from Allegheny county, will be elected speaker of the house. I will be elected United States senator by above 150 votes out of a total vote of 254 on the first ballot in joint assembly.

Philadelphia, Nov. 9.—Some of the leaders in the fight against the election of Colonel Quay to the senate met in this city and discussed plans for a continuation of the fight against Quay in the legislature meeting in January. Senator Martin is a Republican "hold over" from this city, as is Senator Flinn from Allegheny county. Senator Magee was re-elected by the Republicans on Tuesday from his district in Allegheny county, and Senator Cochran, who is the Democratic leader of the senate, and who was active against Mr. Quay in the last legislature, is a "hold over" from the district comprising Lycoming, Montour, Sullivan and Columbia counties.

Senator Martin in a statement made by him said:

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 9.—The anti-Quay showing in the senate and house, according to one who is in the confidence of the anti-Quay leaders, is as follows:

Senate—Republicans—Henry and Martip, of Philadelphia; Rice, of Bucks; Drury, of Luzerne; Edmiston, of Bradford; McKee, of Perry; Stewart, of Franklin; Weller, of Bedford; Magee, Flinn and Crawford, of Allegheny; Budke, of Washington; Sprout, of Chester, and Weiss, of Lebanon; total, 14. Democrats—Herbst, of Berks; Wentz, of Montgomery; Stiles, of Lehigh; Kemmerer, of Northampton; Lee, of Monroe; Cochran, of Lycoming; Haines, of York; Higgins, of Schuylkill; Miller, of Cumberland; Heinle, of Center; Neely, of Clarion; Boyd, of Fayette, and Washburn, of Crawford; total, 13, or a total of anti-Quay showing of 27 in the senate.

The house anti-Quay leaders are said to be McPherson, of Adams, 11 of the 16 members of the Allegheny delegation; Crawford, of Kittanning; Sanderson, of Bedford; Hamilton, Lamo and Taylor, of Bradford; Winner, Wilkinson and Edwards, of Bucks; Allison and Thompson, of Center; Alexander, of Clearfield; Douth, of Forest; Welty, of Franklin; Reynolds, of Lackawanna; Greh and Bierman, of Lebanon; three from Luzerne; Cotter and Boyne, of McKean; Foster, of Montour; Godecharles, of Northumberland; Arnold, of Perry; 11 of the 89 members from Philadelphia; Koontz and Kendall, of Somerset; Hitchcock, of Tioga; Johnson, of Union; Baker, of Warren; Clarke, McLaren and Anderson, of Washington; Thomas, of Westmoreland, and Tiffany, of Wyoming, a total of 57.

Add to these the 45 Democrats in the house and the total anti-Quay strength, according to this estimate, in the lower body is 102 and in the joint convention 129. The key of the situation is the caucus. Should the 12 anti-Quay men who are classified go into the caucus the game would apparently be Quay's. A prominent Quay senator said that he personally knew of four members of the house who are counted as against Quay, who are, in fact, for him. Similar statements are made by the anti-Quay leaders, and as it looks now the guessing will proceed as before, until there is a show down in the caucus.

To Establish American League Clubs.

A BAD RUNOFF THIS MORNING

Caused Disaster to Two
Other Wagons.

of Jacob Grueny on Walnut Street.

ONE HORSE SERIOUSLY INJURED

A team attached to the Schlather
Brewing company wagon ran off this morning on Fifth street and one of
the horses was seriously injured.

The team started at the lower
end of Fifth street and dashed up the street at breakneck speed. They turned into Walnut street and when near the Boyce foundry ran into the bakery wagon of Jacob Grueny. There was a general smashup and both wagons were badly damaged.

The single tree ran into the stomach of one of the horses and made
a large hole. When the tree had been taken out the hook still remained in the stomach of the horse.

The team also struck a delivery
wagon of Frank Crook on Fifth street,
knocked a dresser out and broke it.

Local High School Eleven Would Like
Game.

Some time ago the local high school
foot ball eleven went to Wellsville
and played the high school club of
high school boys are not the kind
vim in anticipation of the return
game promised by Wellsville.

Now Wellsville steadily refuses to
play here and make excuse after excuse when asked to fulfill their agreement before the first game was played. Liverpool stands ready to meet them any time.

Black and gray suitings, for man or boy, easily are in the lead. To get the real thing, see

NOT IN HIS LINE.

He Did Not Desire That the Devil
Should Have a Mortgage
on Him.

He is a citizen of East Liverpool,
and is quite prominent and popular.
He owns property and has houses for rent. He has one property for which he asks a rental of twenty dollars per month. An individual called on him
the other day and desired to become his tenant. He is a little particular as to the class of tenants he rents to,
and he therefore questioned the
would-be renter as to the nature of business in which he is engaged. The
visitor tried to dodge the question,
but finally admitted that he is a saloon keeper and that he wanted the property for saloon purposes. He was refused, and finally offered to pay $45 per month, and pay six months'
rent in advance; and again he was refused, with the information that he could not have the property at any price. This has the right ring, and
the pity is that we have not more
property owners of the same class.
There must be an awful profit in the saloon business, in the mere matter
of dollars and cents, when men will offer so much more than is asked of legitimate business men. And this money, as a rule, comes from the pockets of the men who earn their
living in the sweat of their faces.
'Tis an awful pity for both workmen
and saloon keepers. "For what shall
it profit a man," etc.

HORSE STOLEN

A Valuable Animal Belonging to Harry Green is Now Among the Missing.

Word was received by the authorities at city hall yesterday afternoon
that a valuable horse had been stolen
from Harry Green, of Wellsville, the
night before.

The missing animal is a small black
mare, and is believed to have been brought in this direction.

The authorities are keeping a close watch, and should the thief be in the neighborhood he will be apprehended.

They Wear Well.

And they look well, and there are

Hill Was All Smiles.

When C. C. Hill, of the clerical force of the freight station, reported for duty this morning his face was all smiles, and he was passing around the cigars.

When asked why he was so happy he replied that a McKinley boy had appeared at his home on Washington street yesterday.

You Need Them.

After the evidence was all in yesterday in the case against Jack Reaves he insisted upon filing a complaint against Stewart, who, he said, had a coat belonging to him. Accordingly he swore out a warrant charging him with the theft, but nothing could be proved and the case was dropped. It was developed that although Reaves had possession of the coat for some time it had never belonged to him.

The Mid Season Sale Continues.

abuse the minds of some who seemed to be laboring under the impression that we have reduced our entire stocks to less than cost, etc. Not so--only such heavy winter goods as we realize should have moved more rapidly, only such stacks of goods of which we bought in greater quantities than sales so far warranted, have been reduced to actual cost or thereabouts.

And from present indications and responses, even those goods can be re-marked at normal prices before many a day. Tomorrow, and up to next Friday, 16th, however, these prices hold good.
